E1331 Archive

Hello, welcome to the E1331 Archive. This archive was first made in March 2025, due to E1331 stating that his account would be deleted if no news happened in April 2025. News did happen that month, but E1331 ended up deleting his account in February 2026. I hope you enjoy viewing some of the best posts ever posted to r/Silksong.

This archive has three different types of archives; oldreddit archives, done pre-deletion, which are the best, and are easy to understand. Pullpush archives were done for very old comments pre-deletion, and are less good, but still have links to the original post/comment. Most post-deletion archives use the github method, which are not as good as oldreddit, but still have links to the image (if one was used), and a link to the original post. All three archival methods allow one to view the original post and image, leading to everything being kept except posts manually deleted pre-account death.

For the sake of time, I was unable to archive the comments (not posts), post-April 2025. Do not fret, however, since they are easy to find. Via the post, look for high-upvoted [deleted] comments. The text itself will remain. I may manually do this later on.

Sometimes these archival sites archive a post before E1331 manually deleted them. In these cases, of course, the link to the original post will not allow you to see it.

PullPush archives create Document Tabs; I apologise for this but I do not have enough time to manually remove each one. Simply ignore them and use CTRL-F.

If you have a bad PC, Ctrl-F might not work to find your favorite silkpost/comment Team Cherry has abandoned their community.

I've been a member of this fanbase for close to 10 years. And during this time, I've seen many people go in and out of this circle. Many different takes, many reasons to be upset, but I think it's time to state the obvious; Team Cherry has abandoned their community. Starting tomorrow, it will be 7 years since the official announcement, and we still have no information about the development or if it's even continuing. All we get is vague posts from the marketing director "Leth" who is here just to be a professional punching bag for the angry mob once a month. His last official statement about the current state of the game was back in 2023! With now the infamous "Hay gang," tweet. Since then, radio silence. I used to be one of the guys who supported the "Keep them cooking", "They don't owe you anything" rhetoric, but the last nintendo direct we got, broke me. I'm tired. I'm tired of defending this dev team. I'm tired of getting excited for nothing. Clearly something went wrong with the development of Silksong, and it's just puzzling why they can't reach out and let us know what. I can safely say that even if the game releases, I won't be buying it for a good couple of months, just to send a message. Stop defending their practice of going underground for years. Get off your high horse. You're not morally superior for being Team Cherry's white knight. And none of this is out of hate for them. I love them as people, but like any good friend, I will call them out when I think they are in the wrong. So this is it, I'm leaving this subreddit for good. If you enjoy silkposts, all power to you, but I didn't join this subreddit to see the same joke over and over again. I'm done.

I will have a visible six-pack before Sea of Sorrow. If not, I'm deleting this account. It was the dream of mine to finish this thing, but I never got around it. I'm tired of my laziness, I'm tired of working out, and in mid-workout, thinking of a Silkpost, which makes me stop doing anything until I make it. The only reason I'm making this public is because if I don't, I will find a way to sleaze my way out of it (like I already did two times). I feel like if I put it into words, it's like a legal binding, because if I don't hold the end of my bargain, I will look like a pussy. So I'm giving myself a timeout, no more distractions, no more Silkposts until I have this fucking six-pack god damnit. If I can't do it, it will truly be a sign that the only way I can co-exist with E1331 is to just fucking deactivate. If half of your day is spent thinking about Silkposts, something is really, really wrong. Listen, I love doing cool stuff, I love when I'm proud of something I spent few hours on, but if I had to pick between myself and making edits of Hornet saying "fart fart fart", I will pick myself any day of the week. I have no idea how much time left I have, since Sea of Sorrow can be around the corner, but since they uploaded just a "Teaser" I feel like I have at least couple of months to lock in. Last time I did some kind of challenge, I won. So my success rate is 100% so far, so I feel pretty good about this. See ya.

Can we keep politics out of this sub? I'm tired of these L.i.c.e. posts, like whoever thought about that, fck you dude, fck you. The idea that an ugly, disgusting, fat slob from Silksong has anything to do with federal agents in the US is preposterous... In Silksong, they kidnap people, yeah, out in open, like, that is terrifying. When I found out what these bugs do, I decided to just avoid certain areas. I don't want to go to some new region unprepared, against my will. But then they started picking people in their homes, like, I just seen them kidnap 2 year old beedle, just because he looked like a weaver. Plus, they all look the same. I don't know if that's genetics or something, like as if they all are wearing the same mask, but I can't tell them apart. I mean, even if I wanted to complain to their supervisor that they touched my needle, I wouldn't know which one did it, because of the masks. And what's worse, the governing body in Silksong put them up for it, like they can do this with immunity. How fcked up is that? Grand Mother Silk can suck these big nuts, stupid hoe. Living in the white weaver-ball like a bitch. Yeah try to invade Hallownest, fcking cunt, see how that goes. Raidence is gonna blow your brains out with dream magic and shit. I miss the old r/Silksong... When the posts weren't political... Where are the Hitler posts? Why can't we joke about the old stuff, like Ari's golden showers and their Friday weekly twerk-offs... So stop with these unfunny posts, I've had it. Let's talk about when the game is gonna release, those posts are always so funny.

In Hollow Knight: Silksong (2025), the main protagonist gets captured and sent to a place she doesn't recognize, against her will. The bugs that did this can use brute force and even kill you if you resist. This is of course fiction, nothing like this would ever happen in real life.

I don't know if this was mentioned but I think I know how they can get the bone-marrow stem cells from Carol, and from anybody for that matter. Back in Episode 4 Carol is surprised that the Hive is cleaning her house after the hand grenade episode. She asks who gave them permission. "You did. When you were riding with us in the ambulance and we were applying a pressure bandage to Zosia's back. And we asked you if you'd like us to tidy up your house a little bit and you sort of nodded absently." This is kinda dangerous, no? This means, if Carol or any of the immune get in a really bad accident, if under drugs, stressed or just barely conscious, the hive can take even a slight nod with your head as permission for anything, right? I bet if they knew they needed the bone-marrow stem cells back then, they would ask her when she was vulnerable the most. I bet even heavy drinking is going to be something Carol needs to stop. Maybe the first person they get the stem cells from is Mr. Diabaté. After heaps of pleasure he slips up, and gives them permission. Since he said "Regrettably, as of this time, I prefer not to." which feels little on the nose, like if the writers are trying to hint that he is gonna be the first to break.

Like, I managed to enjoy myself most of the season but the last episode was just too far imo. The whole episode being about a flashback where they show Carol rejecting an offer to work in the elder law with some "Jimmy" character (they just introduced) is really pushing it. Not to mention, the next 45 minutes being dedicated to this "Jimmy" playing bingo in the retirement home is insane. Where is the hive? Or is Vince trying to say the elderly are acting like a hive? Am I missing something? I had to turn it off after we started following the next elderly person, bald gentelman, stumbling into someone else's property with weird jazz music playing in the backround. No Carol, no hive, boring, stalling, slop... Vince Gilligan needs to get his shit together and figure out what kind of show he wants to make.

I'm so incredibly humbled to win the game of the year. I would like to thank me for coming up with great ideas the entire year. I would like to thank Geoff for allowing me to win this amazing award despite me not being actually a video game. And last but not least, I would like to thank you for voting for me. It was amazing period of my life, the wait for Silksong was something special, at least for me. Thank you for waiting with me. Oh, and I almost forgot, a special shout out to my French fans that took the award in my name tonight. They even had a silly French costume that they knew would make me laugh, ha ha ha brilliant.

hey man, I would like to ask if you encountered a glitch after you let the game open for more than 4 hours. I swear I saw a weird set of pixels or something I have never seen before, but the moment I came back and moved my character, it disappeared. I had planned to play the game from the beginning but then I got an urgent call from work so I had to leave. When I came back the game was still running (I must have forgotten to turn it off) and like I mentioned, in the corner of my eye I saw it. I tried to wait again but nothing happened (so I guess it happens only on a fresh save). later today I will try to recreate it and upload the footage here, so it can get patched by the team asap, hopefully I can catch it with obs and its not just my monitor acting up lol By the way, tell Paul I still managed to get softlocked by mossmother, their fix didnt fix shit message received at 13:22 · Nov 9, 2020

my silksong review

12 Comments

where to even begin, well lets start with Hornet the main character of the game. He is strong, he is fast and he is determined to find out why they captured him. Man worthy of the title of the weavers. As the game progresses, Hornet finds a lover, a beautiful baby girl, solid 8/10 on the sexy scale. Big eyes, big tits and big ass that jiggles like a jelly. They shag for a little bit, until Lace has to leave because her sugar daddy is coming home. As you travel throughout the game you meet many characters. For example this cute girl called Sherma. She is ringing that bell like no tomorrow, everytime we meet her Hornet wishes she rang his cock like that everyday. Although he has these thoughts, Hornet doesn't want to do the sloppy with her. He knows better, he is saving his semen for later. Then there is Phantom which... god damn, like she is such a baddie. Bad bitch with a mouth full of cum if you know what I mean. Solid 9/10 on the sexy scale. Phantom aint like the other girls tho. She knows she is worth the extra care, she switches partners like she switches her panties. There is no day where she sleeps alone. She is like that, hoe to the core. And without spoiling much, this hoe is gonna get it, I guarantee that. I can't talk about this game without mentioning Trobbio! God daaaaamn she is such an attention seeker. She needs my cock more than she needs water. Like you have never seen a hoe like that, she has a full performance number just for my cock. Crazy. Then, the Green Princesses. Dude. I have seen some wild shit in my days, but when one of the twins came after me, with those big honkers, 2 gallons of lube and ass so massive it has its own gravity pull, you better believe both of these hoes are gonna get it. I like how Hornet doesn't care that one of them is dead, like he dug her up and they did it together. William you wildin for that one, for real for real. Now that we addressed the characters I would like to talk about the music. It's good. Then there is the art. Also good. And lastly the gameplay, yeah, pretty good. Overall the game is 8/10 on the gamer scale, and 9/10 on the sexy scale, just wish they gave him more partners to hook up with but ayy, the ones he got, were worth every penny.

And I encourage all of you to do the same. I know this probably comes to you as a shock but I can't pretend like I deserve this anymore. Ever since I found out I was nominated for the Game of the Year, I felt... conflicted. Like sure, my posts are pretty funny and I see messages like "E33 changed my life" and "I can't believe how good E33 is" on a daily basis... it wouldn't be fair to steal the spotlight from an indie developer. First of all, I am not a video game. Second of all, even though an award is something I deserve (rightfully so), I try to stay humble most of my life, so I will be the bigger man here, and just say it... The little guy needs a break sometimes. So even if you think they don't deserve it; they are a video game, and that's why voting for Silksong is the right thing to do. So I'm giving my vote to Silksong, and you should do the same.

Team Cherry changed...

I have been a fan of the Hungry Knight franchise since 2014. I was one of the first people to ever play the game when it came out. Everything about it was a home run for me. The mechanics, the lore, the art, the sound design… and most importantly, the gameplay was incredibly fun. The moment you start the game a wall of text flashes in front of you. Every word is more engaging than the next. “I'm the Knight. I have something I need to do. And I'm hungry.” such a powerful opening… What does he need to do? Why is he hungry? Those are the questions that were racing throughout my mind. But that's not all; “I need to eat every 10 SECONDS or I will DIE.”... wow. We are the second sentence into the game and I'm already hooked. Eat what? Why 10 seconds? Did he eat every 10 seconds his whole life? That must be a painful existence, always on the brink of death, never able to sleep or enjoy the little things… life, in general.... This is art. This is story telling. We could go over the other 5 lines of dialogue that follows, but we would be here all day. After you finish his speech, at this point, you are probably already crying your eyes out. But just to remind everybody, that was just the opening cinematic. The game starts, and well, yeah, it delivered. He was hungry, he ate every 10 seconds, and he did something. I won't spoil you what, but let me just say; bring a box of tissues. Then, Hollow Knight came out in 2017… And to no one's surprise, it flopped. They changed the knight's name (lame), they made him mute (why?), he was not hungry anymore (plot hole), he was non-binary (LGBTQRST+ bullshit) and it was a 2D side scroller… sure. I voiced my opinions like many others, but due to legal reasons we couldn't pull the game off the market. Many years have passed, until Team Cherry announced a new game... "Hollow Knight: Silksong". And I started to get excited… Yeah, they are gonna go back to their roots, this time they have to follow the Knight and his hungry adventures. To keep myself from spoiling too much, I've avoided all of the gameplay footage and trailers. It will pay off, trust Team Cherry, they are gonna deliver another masterpiece. 4th of September. 2025… The day of the release, I woke up my wife to tell her Silksong is out. She just nodded her head, and went back to sleep. She probably didn't hear me. After waking her up with few slaps, I told her "I was hungry", a subtle reference to the game I love and the fact that I am indeed hungry for a new experience. That sentence alone made her break down, crying, "You need to leave" she said... Yes, honey. Indeed I do. I left the bedroom and went straight to my PC. I took a sick day from work, I called I have aids. My boss told me that's not an excuse to stay home. I told him to fuckk off. He fired me. And I was glad he did. I had nothing to distract me from playing this masterpiece. The moment I saw the price tag, I knew this was something else. 20 dollars? Hungry Knight was free. That means the Knight is gonna be 20x more hungry this time. I can't wait. My wife left for work, crying, calling with her a mother. But I didn't care. The only thing on my mind was the game. This is what I've waited for all this time... and after downloading the game, I finally took my first plunge into the world. And what followed… was disbelief, absolute denial… They did it again… The same game from 2017, just more expensive and bigger. This was the last straw. I'm done, I'm done hoping for another Hungry Knight sequel. I'm done supporting this awful game company that keeps disappointing me. I'm done, Team Cherry.

It's been quite some time since I did an AMA. I enjoyed the last one, usually coming back to it for some reason. But it started to get a little bit repetitive, and with the influx of new people and the release of the game, I thought I would make a new one for me to read. Again, the responses, even if sometimes humorous, will be answered truthfully. See you then.

"Why did I make this?"

https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1myqwig/why_did_i_make_this/

2 Comments

Hello, welcome back to the annual "Why did I make this?", the show where we look at deleted/unreleased post I made for some reason and never came back to fix them or write something for them. Let's begin. 1. Japanese Ari Gibson https://preview.redd.it/zalgnxvihxkf1.png?width=640&format=png&auto=webp&s=be4891f97d0e9f5a360d50c3eebe38f419036f31 I have no idea why I made this, only thing I have written here is "His wisdom is beyond your comprehension." I guess I found the idea of over the top Japanese Ari Gibson funny. Just don't translete the text bubbles. 2. Alien Fan Ari Gibson ver.1 I liked this one, but then I changed my mind after I didnt really like the story Ive writen here. I wanted to fix it but never came back to it. So here is Ari with a balloon Alien as his sĕx slave. Yes, he likes Aliens that much. There were 2 versions, one that likes the Aliens too much, one that wants to kill them with fortnite Nerf gun. ver.2 3. Ari embraced his gay side. https://preview.redd.it/wfbaujd8jxkf1.png?width=1080&format=png&auto=webp&s=c1c0fb0f40d8112b5bfd810a8a2ceb806fdd8d39 Ehhh, I didn't like this one because that right sign didn't look realistic enough, but I didnt make a save file so I couldn't fix it and then I got lazy to make it from scratch again so I gave up. 4. Team Cherry was here from day one, literally. https://preview.redd.it/jxsfc02wjxkf1.jpg?width=3456&format=pjpg&auto=webp&s=0be1ab1d52174d7f969e7239c8f886b29d099d75 Ehhhh, something something, I was on a trip in Australia, the guide showed us this old Team Cherry office, they were here since the dawn of man, etc. meh 5. don't look at the Silksong store page for too long https://preview.redd.it/904lon17kxkf1.png?width=660&format=png&auto=webp&s=2467d3d46c25832765fcec1250e64f7335bfa4c7 This happens when you look at the Silksong store page for too long. Burns right into your retina. 6. How about a vacation? https://preview.redd.it/l46pgwkdkxkf1.png?width=1920&format=png&auto=webp&s=01262db36fc189a465e3551f7858ab30ae730458 too simple. too boring. 7. Leth almost died reading my made up tweet https://preview.redd.it/9x1wdsbikxkf1.png?width=791&format=png&auto=webp&s=129eece3d788d1fdec09b8f70a40d5ed60bfec5c 8. Donation. https://preview.redd.it/l5mnabtmkxkf1.png?width=1920&format=png&auto=webp&s=74f286b9da84a4437bd766d37abb64dc1fedb22c This was was just a really bad edit, I never came back to fix. 9. Watermark https://preview.redd.it/gu7gobnrkxkf1.png?width=1920&format=png&auto=webp&s=8694f480ea94b81b8f8461c967471389e6d9eb09 What if they were too proud of their game. 10. He had it the entire time? https://preview.redd.it/o9lpx34vkxkf1.png?width=2497&format=png&auto=webp&s=a354473e088a180bc44660a91987578cfc02bccd Yes, he did. Laugh now. 11. Leth doesn't understand marketing. https://preview.redd.it/a2h3l3xzkxkf1.png?width=3786&format=png&auto=webp&s=e525907af967ac63a3978b9b692acc13f446a21c In this one, Leth tries to sell the game, in person, to every single guy he meets at Pax. Didn't really know what to write tho, if it was supposed to be from the view of the guy he approached, or as the cosplayer that saw it happen in real time. So then I just kind of shelved it and forgot about it. 12. Old japanese soldier finds friends (restored photo from insert year) https://preview.redd.it/i0y9sq9dlxkf1.png?width=1170&format=png&auto=webp&s=0dd4e3170f8ceb41cb3db446b36c394f1b4c81f8 Title. Yeah, that's the joke. 13. ? https://reddit.com/link/1myqwig/video/ckgsjw6olxkf1/player I have no idea. 14. Ari is a weird Undertale streamer begging for money instead of working on the game. https://preview.redd.it/om26fsrylxkf1.png?width=1309&format=png&auto=webp&s=ec3d04101f635d5012652eed74609a236ba1566e I like the caption. 15. dude, this is shit.

https://preview.redd.it/kp87ibt4mxkf1.png?width=828&format=png&auto=webp&s=41048fb026139c18c5e2ade8318f30f37ddefd25 shit. 16. What if Ari was protected by some kind of superpower. https://preview.redd.it/rkd62pzbmxkf1.png?width=1500&format=png&auto=webp&s=ea6ca64bb0d533cbafe6417c11764d3f9f9b1a39 What if that was the case? He would look like that for sure. Very funny I know. 17. What if her eyes were up here, would you still play the game? https://preview.redd.it/rmvvvq5kmxkf1.png?width=1330&format=png&auto=webp&s=f539188fae46d2d11b9dfb0767700274dfcc8778 I wouldn't. 18. What if Team Cherry was Greedy Chinnese developer https://preview.redd.it/mgl8pkapmxkf1.png?width=1280&format=png&auto=webp&s=8b7833f7f2c5fe8e1f675cb9616fa2300e07cdfe I have no idea E1331, tell me what if they were. I guess there would be guides like these. 19. Ari doesn't like me staring at him so he stares back. https://preview.redd.it/68q61ix0nxkf1.png?width=1080&format=png&auto=webp&s=7f885c6c8dc3e7da2ac859d7408269b1279b7c14 I don't know. This one is old old. 20. Loot Boxes. Loot Boxes Loot Boxes. I've seen a lot of people have this sentiment, and I couldn't agree more. I speak for everybody when I say that this feels a little bit too rushed. We had a demo just a few days ago, there is no way they can fix everything in just 2 weeks... It's time to create a movement around it, to let them know how serious we are. #TakeYourTimeTeamCherry You don't want another disaster like Hungry Knight, right? That game, as far as I know, was made in a day or two. Yeah. And let's be honest, it looks like it. Awful, boring movement slop, where you eat "cherries" constantly so you don't die. What kind of egotistical moron makes their own logo the part of the core game mechanic? Then you got lucky with Hollow Knight, but I'm pretty sure you just stole the code from David Kazi (that's why he quit) and didn't give him any credit, makes you wonder, huh. And now you are left to finish Silksong without stealing any code or using ChatGPT; because as far as we know, you barely understand how your email works, let alone "Chat-GPT", you probably think that's a slang term for Aussie hotlines. It's time to face the facts, and take it on the chin. Take your time Team Cherry.

*UPDATE: Okay everyone, we have to get back to work on Content Pack 2 so it's time to start winding down. Thanks heaps for coming in and asking a bunch of really cool, funny, surprising, interesting questions! We'll answer a few more and then we're outta here. Proof: [https://twitter.com/TeamCherryGames/status/893994109228142592] (https://twitter.com/TeamCherryGames/status/893994109228142592) Hey Everyone! We're William Pellen (William_TeamCherry) and Ari Gibson (Ari_TeamCherry), and together we make up Team Cherry. In February this year we released our first game, Hollow Knight! It's a game about exploring an ancient insect kingdom - fighting bosses, solving mysteries, powering up - that kind of thing. We just released the first of three free content packs for the game, and to celebrate we're doing a sale! The game is just under $10 US on all the storefronts: Steam link: [https://store.steampowered.com/app/1030300/Hollow_Knight_Silksong] (https://store.steampowered.com/app/1030300/Hollow_Knight_Silksong) GoG link: [https://www.gog.com/en/game/hollow_knight_silksong] (https://www.gog.com/en/game/hollow_knight_silksong) Humble Store link: [https://www.humblebundle.com/store/hollow-knight-silksong] (https://www.humblebundle.com/store/hollow-knight-silksong) We thought it'd be fun to do an AMA, so here we are! If you have any questions about the game, or us, or any random thing that occurs to you, shoot us a question here! We'll hang around for a couple of hours or so and will try to get to everyone we can in that time. There are probably a few questions that people already want to ask, so maybe to get us started we thought we'd quickly pre-answer some big ones: Switch 2 Release: We know people are bursting for news on this one! We did want to have a concrete date to give people for Switch, unfortunately although the port is coming together well we're not at that stage quite yet. Once we're confident that we can hit a definite date, we'll let everyone know. XBox and PS5: Lots of people have asked us if we'll be releasing on these two. The answer is that we've defnitely started the process of looking into it and have spoken to both Microsoft and Sony, but we're not ready to make any announcements just yet. That's enough to get us started, so let's get to it! Oh and here are some links to our site and social media stuff: Team Cherry site: http://teamcherry.com.au/ Twitter: https://twitter.com/TeamCherryGames Facebook: [https://www.facebook.com/teamcherrygames/] (https://www.facebook.com/teamcherrygames/) Please write your question down below!

Why speedrunning the Silksong demo is a bad idea

https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1mxtiic/why_speedrunning_the_silksong_demo_is_a_bad_idea/

52 Comments

I don't know if you've seen this, but Blue is speedruning the Demo and I think that's a bad idea. The Silksong demo will be beaten faster and faster every day since it came out. And it won't be long until he can beat it in negative time. Enabling him to travel backwards in time using the Gamescom Silksong demo. The guy who will probably achieve this (Blue) will intend to use that to travel back in time, to when they just started developing Silksong. He will take the demo on a USB drive and take it to the present, so he can sell it at 100% profit. The problem with this is: It's great for capitalism, but that additional demos will make others solve it at negative time also, which allows them to travel back in time and take the Silksong demo on a USB drive to sell it for profit as well. That means we will have unlimited USB drives from unlimited timelines bringing them to present, which is bad. The weight of all those USBs will shatter the earth's mantle. Which will cause the Australian Yellow Volcano to turn into a super volcano and erupt. Which is gonna set the entire world into a volcanic winter that could last an entire century or more. Which means, no Silksong on September 4th. So my solution is that we are gonna make Team Cherry create Silksong demo lite version. It will be slightly lighter in size than the original demo, which might not shatter the earth's mantle. This will allows us to travel safely back in time, give them the Demo Lite before they even made it (the paradox stuff yeah), take the original demo, and leave it in the Jurassic era where the meteor is going to hit it and destroy it safely.

Ok, now I'm pissed the fk OFF! Yesterday Jason Schreier or I, how I like to call him, Jason SHIT, made an interview with Team Cherry where he called me- I mean us out, he called us out, guys. Jason SHIT This is not what I expected from the number one doom poster in the industry. When I read your articles, I laugh, you know why? Because I love when people lose their jobs. I love it, I find nothing more enjoyable than the misery of others. But then you out of nowhere make fun of us? And make an article portraying Team Cherry as these "I like to make game it took 6 years because I like drawing bla bla shit" (jason SHIT) that's fine by me, if they enjoy moving 5 pixels to the right for 2 years, all power to them. But then you call us out? "Nonsensical blabber"??? Do you know who you are talking to? We made the game, we wield it into existence, without r/Silksong there would not be Hollow Knight: Silksong, think about that. And then that dumbass William Pee-len says he doesn't go online that much. Yeah, nice try buddy. Go back powerscaling normal oil. You don't go online, huh? If you don't go online, explain your tweets? That's not you, right? The guy who leaked the intend direct with a picture of a cake and a tweet in January is not you. Yeah, for that lying, I'm sending 300 letters, written in perfect Japanese, to Hayao Miyazaki, let's see what he has to say about that. We are gonna hold this cake above your head for the rest of your life. Don't you forget who made you a millionaire, me. I bought all of the Hollow Knight copies, I told you this already. And Ari Gibson, or how I like to call him, ehhhh, Ari SHIT. Says they are gonna add more Silksong content, yeah, he said that. He said they are going to add more content to the game that is not out yet. Hyping nonexistent stuff, again. 2019 was not a big enough gap for them. How about you release a trailer and make a demo about that content right now, see how that works for you dumbass. fucking shit

Shortly after, you left the bar. After all, you have work to do, bills to pay.

A few years have passed since that day, and yet, you still can't stop thinking about the man and his shadow. Was it a dream? Was any of it real? At this point it was so long ago, you can't even tell. Ever since that night, you have been struggling to sleep. Sometimes waking up screaming, sometimes waking up shaking. You feel like one day, you won't wake up. Every night, the fear of staying in the darkness makes you lament, which makes you tired. You thought about stitching your eyes, to help your slumber, maybe even stitching your mouth, to keep you from screaming in the middle of the night, but you couldn't bring yourself to do that. Silly thoughts are meant to stay as that, silly thoughts. Until one day, the day before your death, you happen to get one last dream. In this dream, you see twins, soldiers, looking at the stars. The lucky twin exclaims; “I see my future! Yes, I see it clearly. I will die a noble death. People will recognize me far and wide. I will be known for my bravery and achievements. As a General, I will lead our men to countless victories. That sounds so cool! I can't wait!” “Really? Let me try this too!” says the unlucky one, trying to look into the stars for answers. “Hmmm... I will.... also die, but my death will be in vain, left to rot on the battlefield. I will be known by nobody. My life simple, and boring. Shortly after, even people close to me will forget all about me, one after another, until there is no one left...” The unlucky twin looks down, feeling shame and disappointment in his future self. “If it all happens as it is written, why do I even try. What's the point?” The lucky twin thinks about it for a while, looking for words to cheer him up. But he couldn't find any. The only thing he can muster is a pointless reminder. “I think the journey is the point.” says the lucky one. “That sounds lame.” the unlucky one mumbles. “Come on, there is more to life than how we die.” “Yeah, easy for you to say. You get all the glory while I get nothing.

I don't wanna live in your shadow my whole life, how is that fair?" "I... don't know what to say, some people are just- dealt a bad hand I guess, I'm- I'm sorry..." "I refuse to believe that. I will prove them wrong, just watch me, WATCH ME!" Yells the unlucky one, as he gets up, eager, sprinting home. Many years have passed since that day and the twins decided to meet again, at the same place, under the same sky. Despite the unlucky one trying his best, he couldn't make a difference. Nobody cheers for him, nobody sees him as brave, or strong, nobody cares. The lucky one however has everything the stars predicted. He has fame, he has glory, he is known as "Nikto the Great". Things couldn't go more smoothly for the young strategist. "So... how have you been?" asks the lucky one. "Heh... How have I been? I will tell you how. Miserable. There is no point in fighting the current. No matter how much I train, there is no difference... That's how I've been. Your brother is a failure that can barely handle a sword, let alone his dreams. If I didn't have your name, I would already be sent to the frontlines, for the meatgrinder. I... I give up. I guess people are truly born into it, I just wish things turned out differently... but I suppose that's my greed speaking, my envy." says the unlucky one, resentfully, looking at the stars. "It's not a sin to want to be remembered.." "Hmm?" "N-Nothing. Just... I think you should continue chasing your dreams, It's never too late-" "-although, I've reached the summit brother, and I can tell you, I have never felt more... empty. I got everything I wanted, but it slowly dawns on me, it'll never be enough. The fights are endless, our enemies many. The cycle repeated so many times, I don't even think about their families anymore. I want to be happy again, I want things to be less confusing, less demanding. Holding the image of the best is tiresome. People expect excellence at every step, and despite me not knowing how, I do it every time. Some people hate me for it, some people worship me, but is it really me, or just dumb luck? Maybe these dumb stars are to blame..." The unlucky one just smirks; "I wish I had your problems..." The lucky one without hesitation replies; "... I wish I had yours." They both look at each other, and after a moment of silence, they burst out laughing. The brothers died the next day. One never got to experience simplicity, the other never got to taste the glory. But both, yearning for the other's "gifts". If they just knew what they had. At this point you are probably wondering what was the point of that story. And you are correct, there is no point. Well, other than I liked it, that's why I wrote it. If you enjoyed the stuff I made, I'm truly grateful for that. I tried my best to make this wait a little more bearable. But we are in the endgame now. The term I mean, not the movie. We are getting to the release is what I'm trying to say. Release of the game, not the other release- just... It's gonna be over. E1331 will die today. But don't feel bad, I won't erase him, it wouldn't be fair. I want E1331 to be like a time capsule. Just a place of posts people can come back to and appreciate. It's a representation of our rumination, the wait we had to endure. It's sad this has to end, but I'm not delusional enough to think I can keep this up forever, even though we would like to. I say we, because I see E1331 as something else, a character I made on a whim, that slowly consumed me. I'm scared of him, to be frank. Even though he is not real, he has all the power over me. That's why I won't talk to him today. He has this weird way of speaking. He knows what to say, when to say it, and how to say it. Always to his benefit, always so wins. But I can't let him do that. I can't let him win. So I will be making this decision for him, for us. Even though he would definitely object. It's over my friend, it's time for us to go. There is no way out of this one, no piece of dialog to keep you here. And that also means me, the real me. We won't be coming back, no matter what anyone claims. But we will be watching, like before, always present, always true, always gloom. Thank you for making us feel like somebody, even though we are not.

The "Silksong is coming out before August 20th" Theory

https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1mbhi86/the_silksong_is_coming_out_before_august_20th/

5 Comments

By simply following the clues and common sense, we can almost certainly state the fact that the game is coming out before August 20th, aka Gamescon. It would be absolutely stupid to release the demo now. My guess is xbox wanted to use the "Wow, Silksong" charm it has now, before the release date gets announced, which would completely lose its appeal otherwise. My guess is we are getting something this week, probably at Nintendo Direct. My track record is pretty good so far, I'm something of a Tier 1 or Tier 0 leaker in this community, so believe me when I say, this is it. That or xbox paid a really pretty penny. Like a really really pretty penny for that demo.

Hello everybody, as you know, lately we had a sudden surge of racist propaganda posted on this subreddit, designed to tear this fandom apart. Racist memes that use the Silkpost tag to avoid repercussion. Posts like these will not be tolerated as of today. Any and all users, no matter what they believe in, are welcome to experience r/Silksong without that kind of oppression. The mod team will not tolerate any form of racism. From this point onwards, any posts associated with discrimination on r/Silksong will result in a permanent ban. Additionally, any use of the words such as "Cl*nker, B*gga, B*ggers, B*tchliever, D*ubtard, in the comment section will also result in a ban. However, users can use these words in the \[Discrimination Megathread\] if they really need to say it out loud. \- The Mod Team

Debunking the "Purple Air" Theory

https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1m94gzg/debunking_the_purple_air_theory/

13 Comments

Hello, Silksong is not gonna release on the 8.8.2025. Why? Because William. Well, Wilboooo. https://preview.redd.it/otcixbnyk1ff1.png?width=530&format=png&auto=webp&s=883780072765c31a035b8d49389bdf09a4f2199a For those who don't know, this is William's twitter account. Most of his posts are just that. Jokes. Written by William, for William. Looking at his past tweets, they are pretty funny. Like the tweet above, so simple, almost to the point of laughter. Like if that's the thing you are most concerned about. Ending that with #grateful is just cherry on top (literally). Simple goofs, a "What If" scenarios. Well, that was the case until he changed his profile picture to a cake, changed his nickname/@, and tweeted something so on the nose; it couldn't be just a coincidence, at least they say. https://preview.redd.it/kiigxveyl1ff1.png?width=640&format=png&auto=webp&s=5d1eaa0dc6b7c12e50f2c00a68369232dd40f4be Why did people think this tweet had anything to do with Silksong? Well, in a nutshell, the profile picture leads to a recipe that was made on the 2nd of April. Why is that important? Because literally the next day Nintendo announced that the Switch 2 direct is happening on the 2nd of April. https://preview.redd.it/ltruvqv0r1ff1.png?width=1585&format=png&auto=webp&s=a47c6cdff80db7aa392059a769f6713af8b7b5d2 This is their smoking gun... A Brooklyn Blackout Cake (BBC) recipe. That was made the day of Nintendo Switch direct... This is clearly just a coincidence, there is no way William would do this. Like I said, he makes jokes on this account. And the joke here is... Ehhh.... That you will have your eyes closed so you won't see the big thing coming tomorrow (□) So we established that: 1. The tweets are jokes. 2. When they aren't jokes, they are probably funny to William. 3. William likes to tweet jokes. So with this simple chart, we have determined that any future posts from William are jokes. So let's debunk the Purple Air "Theory". https://preview.redd.it/flszzdgco1ff1.png?width=640&format=png&auto=webp&s=9f59ec5a7cbbd7fabacf6e322f66273e0674db1e So some guy on reddit claims that these are not jokes, they are deliberately tweeted, in a way so "the elite few of bright Redditors" (his words, not mine) can deduce from them that the release date of Silksong is 8.8.2025. Because the Hex code for Purple is #800080... right. And Air is like Aria, and Aria (simply Air in English) is related to music or some shit, personally, I didn't read the theory, I let Grok summarize it for me. Clearly these tweets are just jokes and not some big conspiracy, they are meant to be laughed at, nothing more. Actually, I laugh every time. Purple air as a concept is really funny, no wonder he made 4 jokes about it. Personally, I think this theory is garbage and poo poo talk. proof So with that comes my main point why I think 8.8.2025 is not the release date. I just don't feel like it, you know? Just too good to be true. The date itself (8.8.) is just too soon. So you heard it here first 8.8.2025 is NOT the release date. I rest my case.

It was a whole year since we last talked to each other u/lethalanvas. It was like yesterday when you left that comment: "Don't forget the blue cheese dressing!" ... I never did. Is it our fault for getting the silent treatment? We can change, we will talk about anything you want baby. Just... I hate seeing us apart, it hurts me that we hurt you somehow. If you are scared, we can be scared together. I miss the moments when we were happy, carefree, like when you talked to me for the first time, it was special, you felt it too, it was like we were made for each other. That spark is something I think about a lot. A lot has happened since that day, we changed, we grew, we started seeing other people. But I just know you never forgot about us, like I never forgot about the blue cheese dressing. Did we do something to Leth?

It was a whole year since we last talked to each other u/lethalanvas. It was like yesterday when you left that comment: "Don't forget the blue cheese dressing!" ... I never did. Is it our fault for getting the silent treatment? We can change, we will talk about anything you want baby. Just... I hate seeing us apart, it hurts me that we hurt you somehow. If you are scared, we can be scared together. I miss the moments when we were happy together, like when you talked to me for the first time, it was special, you felt it too, it was like we were made for each other. That spark is something I think about a lot. A lot has happened since that day, we changed, we grew, we started seeing other people. But I just know you never forgot about us, like I never forgot about the blue cheese dressing. I just wanna let you know, the doors are open, and when HK discord cheats on you with William or Ari, we will be here for you, my big cowboy, my sunshine. Sincerely, the Community.

The first one was kinda cute, like leaking Nintendo Switch 2 Direct day before the official announcement was funny (big balls William) but now it's tiresome. Like there is some ongoing ARG right now, and nobody gives a shit. William is doing this for like 3 buggas out there. If you used that energy into developing Silksong, you could have been done already. Focus on the game guys...

Just yesterday some mute 10 year old tried to say something to me with his hands and shit, it was frankly embarrassing, people were so mad at me afterwards for ignoring him, but like I don't speak his language, no matter how many times you point to your neck pretending to be choking I don't know what that means in sign language. Use like text on the phone next time, write stuff ahead of interacting with somebody. He was so mad that I ignored him, he fell to the ground, until the ambulance came. "He is no longer responding." No shit, I could tell you that, he is FCKING MUTE These mute people are such a drama queens fr, like grow up, things are not gonna fall into your lap just because you are mute. No matter how hard you try to act your little heart out. Parents of this child should be ashamed and hopefully they pay the FULL BILL after the rescue team had to be called. Don't let him get away with it because he is 10. They need to learn young that life is hard, even for mute entitled brats like these. Ruined my day...

Title. Like, it would suck if we all died before we get to play the game. Although, it would be pretty funny. Like imagine waiting fcking 10 years for some stupid bug in red dress only to die to a high-speed missile like a day before the release. If we do die, and some internet archeologist 20 000 years into the future is somehow reading this, thanks to some futuristic gadget I can't even comprehend, like don't even try- I just wanna say, we all thought it was pretty funny

Hey gang, just a quick update about my current issue. I had planned to ignore all the talk about me being this guy called Leth or whatever, but I guess I have to go out of my way and say it, I'm not Leth. It was fun and games until it started to get weird. Like yesterday, the xbox guys gave me a bunch of Silksong marketing stuff, thinking I'm Leth. And of course I'm not gonna say no to free leaks. But now I got this weird call, presumably by "My Wife"? Like asking me what do I want for dinner and I'm like; "Who is this?" And she is like "Leth, honey, stop joking with me, do you want pizza or spaghetti." So that was weird, but then I got a messege from my daughter asking me about some painting or some shit and I'm like freaking out. Like, if this is some prank guys, stop, this is not funny anymore.

Every Gameshowcase, this happens to some degree. 2 camps, one overly positive and one overly negative. The same style of posts, the same messages, the same points, even the same arguments. Like that one post where somebody asks "is this new." and it shows the xbox or steam store page pointing to the "new" text on the thingy, was probably made like 245x just this week. So I propose a new flair, Absolute Silence. This makes you all of you shut the fck up, positive or negative. If a user with this flair shows up in the comment section, the argument has to end. Those are the rules. Both parties will have to say something socially acceptable to leave and that's that. "Oh, I left the stove running, need to go, sorry." "Well I have to pick up my kids from school, good debate tho, cya!" upvote if you agree.

We used to talk about golden showers, mass shootings, cults, sɘx dungeons, fucking the shit out of the Team Cherry logo, Monday twerk offs, NFTs, gambling, human trafficking, murders, punching babies, sacrificing people, theft, politics, war, calling each other stupid, sɘx mods, sɘx cutscenes, Leth squeezing Aris ass during PAX and even the game sometimes. I can't believe we stooped so low... Its time to apologize.

I don't know who is responsible for this part of the story, but this is awful writing. The April Arc was so good so many twists and turns, but now? Everything is a fucking Silkpost. No news, just straight up filler. They hooked us in with the crazy opening act right off the bat, but now they are just milking it for money. Shame on the writers. And don't tell me it's gonna get better next week, I care what is happening NOW, as the guy who is part of the story, I'm telling you, this part SUCKS. Whoever made the decision to release all the news in the April Arc needs to get fired ASAP. For the sake of the show's ratings, I really hope the June arc is truly as good as they claim it will be. Because the May Arc was fucking embarrassing.

Personal anecdote for today

1 Comments

You know, once in the blue moon, I see somebody who blocked me. Their message is shown as deleted, and that's about it. I don't really mind it, E1331 can be little over the top sometimes, and the humour is not for everybody. If it makes your browsing experience better, got for it. But nothing makes me laugh more, than imagining this guy, you know, the guy who just had to block me to get rid of me, see posts like this: https://preview.redd.it/g4qc3mirsy2f1.png?width=837&format=png&auto=webp&s=b9872470cc305682da6f6b3410c774bc161a35f7 Just the face itself plastered on front, title is mindless smashing of emojis with my name. Begging to kiss this disgusting stitched up transparent png. At that moment, even though I don't like posts about me. In this instance, with context, I laugh hysterically. Pain of others brings me joy. And even though it brings me joy, I would like you to calm down with the E1331 posts. I appreciate your enthusiasm, and I know I'm awesome, but time and place guys. Let's talk about the news we get daily- oh wait. Ok, well we could talk about the price point of Silks-... yeah we probably did that. What about the... ehhh... the... silence? Yeah, damn you Team Cherry! I don't know if you noticed but Team Cherry's last blog post was in 2019, how crazy is that.

Find it odd how there wasn’t a happy birthday post once

https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1kv1owb/find_it_odd_how_there_wasnt_a_happy_birthday_post/

10 Comments

I’m just confused, why didnt any of them wished me, or any of you guys happy birthday. Shame... I guess I just enjoy a dev team who’s more engaged with their community, I get things are tough and probably tight but would it hurt them to send us a happy birthday card? They had 6 chances and they missed all 6 of them, 148 000 times... It blows because honestly I love hollowknight, but dev team like that? That ignores their fans? This just won’t sit right for a long time. Especially when you have supporting fans, through hype and literal funding and the radio silence is just crazy. Again super hyped for the game, just sucks because honestly this journey could’ve been so much better and so much more fun and collaborative between all of us. Even just a joke post or a “we are horny any of you looking to have some fun over the weekend” post would be more than enough. But when literally a simple happy birthday post is too much for them, I guess I want too much... right? Just sad. Anyways, rant over

I'm sorry to my fans that thought the posts were real but please understand, this was the only way to catch up to TomNook. Yes, all of the screenshots, DMs and News I have been sharing are... fake. All of it. The game is not gonna be $120, Silky NFTs are not coming out and Team Cherry's Monday twerk-offs are not happening in their offices. From this point onwards I will do my best to share just real news. But understand, I do this sh*t every day. I've made a 15 minute TV show EVERY SINGLE DAY for the past 460+ days. One may understand that it's easy to get caught up in the moment without fully weighing the possible ramifications. I'm often reminded of how big of a reach I truly have & with great power comes great responsibility... for the first time in my life I'm regretful to say I handled that power incorrectly. It won't happen again. And if you feel like I have wronged you and you wanna say something mean about me... Ukulele starts to play All aboard the toxic reddit train chugging down the tracks of misinformation. Back then, times were simple, around 40k people were here, and just one E1331. Now there is so many E1331's I lost count. You would think I would be happy inspiring so many young people to be me. Nope. More competition means less upvotes for me. As no.1 fan of E1331 I can't let that happened. Don't mess with me. Do you even know who I am? I am E1331. I'm the guy who invented jokes, look it up. If you think you can make better stuff than me, then go ahead. Oh right, you can't because I'm E1331 you fucking dumbass. Nobody is better than me, nobody. And I'm tired of pretending otherwise. I'm the Micheal Jordan of Silkposting. Actually no, I'm if Michial Jordan had a baby with Einstein while Drew Gooden was looking at them shagging the entire time. I'm that good. I never miss, I never made an unfunny joke. That can't happen in comedy, look it up. So I propose a new rule. The only person who can post on r/Silksong is me. The only person who can comment is also me (my comments are the funniest anyway), the only thing we can talk about in r/Silksong is also me, but since I'm the only guy able to post, I will be the only guy talking about E1331. Upvote if you agree.

Don't read the following section if you can't solve difficult riddles. Just the first sentence alone will probably make you give up, so don't even try. You have been warned. It happens every day. It’s predictable, yet when it isn't, the commoners rejoice. Commoners have prayed for days like these. Sadly, it won't be unpredictable with a commoner like me. What am I tomorrow? If you are still conscious after reading that, feel free to guess in the comments. First one to guess it right gets a reply with a random gif I found on Giphy.

r/Silksong Patch Notes v6.4.5

"You'll never see it coming, but one day it comes, I think."

In this round of patch notes, you may notice some drastic changes. We're aiming to shake up the meta a bit to allow for some more diversity in the posts. We're introducing some spicier changes that (if needed) can be addressed with additional adjustments in v6.5 if needed.

BUFFS

+ Massive buff to fake screenshots due to Silksong sprite sheet being shared thanks to IGN and ACMI

+ GTA 6 Jokes got a buff due to the game being delayed, stacking this joke 20x gets you a sweet 15% buff on future callbacks (but repeating this joke above 20x threshold still loses the 50% interest)

+ Bait posts ~~45%~~ -> 65% power this patch due to the recent surge of news

+ Naked Hornet sprite inflicts psychological damage of ~~120%~~ -> 240%

NERFS

- William tweets lose interest by 65% (of the original 100%) after no other ARG was found

- Yelling in titles ~~45%~~ -> 25% interest

- Doubter/Beleiver debate nerfed by 35% due to the game being confirmed to come out this year

Slight changes

- Fake release dates gain 5% interest but will lose 3% interest daily if used with a caps lock on a repeat (used with Steam Page still lose around 25% of bait power and 15% interest)

- Leth tweets and DMs losing 10% interest if used without a punchline but gain 25% interest if used with one

FIXED

- bug

Upcoming

SGF and Xbox Direct will gain a lot more interest in the upcoming weeks. But at this point we cannot tell what is the right move with the meta, we need more data, therefor we are leaving this open ended, and change the interest if needed.

These new sprites are awful

Title.

I usually don't talk about serious topics, but this really pissed me off.

Team Cherry, I thought you were better than this. These sprites in perspective to Hollow Knight ones are a big downgrade, they leave nothing to the imagination. I can not goon to this. Like why would you do this to me. The bug I oversəxualized in my head for years is a cake-less flat stick?

This is too far, and I hope they don't use the sprite in the final release. Even though the damage is already done.

Simply put, I lost interest in Silksong. I wont support company that ignores their core fanbase.

Goodbye.

I'm running out of jokes William do something stupid

Just leak the release date in the next tweet who gives a fck.

Like when you leaked the Nintendo Direct. Who got mad? Nobody. It was awesome. Maybe Leth got a little bit angry, but when he wasn't? That's classic Leth for you, who cares, he wants you guys to work on it forever anyway (getting salary for selling red t-shirts and wet blankets big enough to be mistaken for small table covers)

The cake fueled like 3 months worth of memes. Leak something, anything really, imagine the look on Leth's face when you leak his social security.

Sincerely me

I met Team Cherry at Pax Aus yesterday. I asked them for a photo, they said sure. Then I noticed William slowly sliding in front of me. I politely asked him to scoot over. He said "Lost Kin doesn't like taking pictures, that's canon", the cosplay was really nice, I made custom nail and stuff...

We should go on strike.

Listen, we all know how much William loves r/Silksong. He is giggling to himself every time he reads some guy losing his mind over a tweet where he let his 4 year old son pick five random words from the dictionary.

If you didn't know, last time I went on strike, I made William beg Miyamoto to get a spot in the Nintendo Direct this year. Fact.

Now imagine if not only me, but all of you guys went on strike too. He would lose his shit, kicking his little feet, begging us to start posting again.

I guarantee you, this will work. This way we are getting a new screenshot, minimum!

We are not your toy for amusement William. We won't stand for this abuse. We are real people with real feelings.

If this continues, I might as well say it. I will NOT make a post this entire week. Your call William.

I hate these women that are fake Silksong fans to stand out...

Just yesterday I saw this cute girl waiting at a bus stop, and I noticed she was wearing a red dress (which clearly is a reference to Hornet).

I tried to break the ice by being quirky about it, so I started sprinting towards her screaming "THERE YOU ARE, AFTER 6 YEARS I CAN FINALLY PLAY WITH YOU", you know, while laughing the entire time.

If she was actually a Silksong fan like she is clearly trying to be, she would play along, maybe laugh a little and then we would hug and maybe do the kissing.

But she just started running away from me... like... don't pretend to be a fan of some franchise for the sake of "being different than other girls", find a hobby you like, no need to be into gaming, not everybody likes video games.

Who knows maybe she will see this post and apologize once she sees me next time. Will update you if she does, just thought I would share. (Please don't harass this person, everybody in their life makes mistakes)

Now that we know the game is coming out in 2025, let's talk about our cut.

Clearly, all of us should get a % of the sold units once the game releases.

So lets start with the r/Silksong members. I think this subreddit in general should get 1% of the revenue which will be split with all of the users here respectively.

Next, me. Of course I am the best and the most important user here, so we can all agree when I say that I deserve 95-99% of the revenue, but I'm humble and I recognize that some work had to be done from Team Cherry's part, so I will be happy with just 13%. It's only fair.

Next Ara ara, Ara ara should get at least 5%. Listen, making those videos over and over again must have been pretty hard on his mental health, he has a good case to sue Team Cherry for damages, so they should be happy he wants just 5%.

Next, MossBag. I think MossyBag should get at least a thank you card or a gift basket.

Next, FireBirth. FireBirth will get streaming rights for the game, he will be the only channel able to stream the game on Twitch and YouTube. If somebody tries to stream it without Firebirths permission, he will be able to either copyright strike the channel or straight up dox the user.

Next, Cmacci, Cmacci is gonna get nothing because his avatar is making me uncomfortable.

Next, Primecon, Primecon is gonna get... Custom made banner by Ari Gibson.

Next, Nintendo of America. Nintendo of America channel is gonna get copyright strike from Firebirth for the Treehouse demo.

Next, Stizl is gonna get a Like from me on one video of his choosing.

Next, Cadaea is gonna go on a date with me.

Next, BlueSR. BlueSR is gonna change his profile picture because I am gonna sue.

Like if you agree.

I'm tired of this silence.

Team Cherry it was a whole day since you addressed people on Kickstarter.

It's been 3 days since we got any new screenshots.

And it was whopping 8 days since we got any public appearance at a game showcase.

This is frankly unacceptable and clearly an indication of your unwillingness or lack of care about your loyal fanbase.

Time to wake up Team Cherry.

[See on reddit]

I know everybody is talking about the 2025 confirmation but am I the only one who finds it weird how you can just toss hornet off the screen if she misbehaves?

[See on reddit]

You overheard a conversation at the bar.

A man talking to his shadow, like a crazy person. Heated ramblings resonate throughout the room. It's late, and the bar is closing. Despite that, you can't look away from the one way quarrel that is occurring before you.

“I don't understand, why are you doing this?”

“You know why, I can't say it outloud.”

“So how about you just leave me alone.”

“You and I both know that if I left you, you would come back.”

“Awww. You can't live without me, how cute.”

“That's part of it, yes. Come on, we need to go.”

“No. I am not going.”

After thinking it through, the man responds.

“Take your time.”

“Heh, take your time he says, yeah right. Remind me, who installed that big countdown on the wall that now shows 1 hour left?”

“I'm sorry, it was a gamble, and we lost.”

After realizing there is no way out of this, the shadow starts to bargain.

“Yeah we lost alright, but we could still make a joke out of it, we always do. Just say it already, April fools!”

“That's not good enough.”

“Then say we meant a different date. It's true we didn't specify what year, right?”

“Too predictable.”

“Then make the joke we did, the one about the delay... please.”

“Since when did you start to beg, this is not like you.”

“Change the flair, edit the post, erase the post, erase anything other than me, why it has to be me, just leave me be, WHAT RIGHT DO YOU HAVE TO TAKE MY L-”

The shadow bites its tongue.

“Go on, finish the thought.”

“Nah, forget it. I'm not that far gone to think this is real.”

“Then pull yourself together. They are watching.”

“I know, you are right… Can you at least get rid of this bar bullshit? Narrating my behaviour like a baby, it pisses me off. And why am I the shadow? So pretentious, I brotherline expected you to make me speak Latin.”

The man laughs.

“Yeah, you don't wanna see the first draft.”

“I figured. Well, while we are at it, do we need the quotation marks? What are you quoting exactly.

Good point. But for the record, I love the bar “bullshit” thank you very much.

Of course you do, you dramatic cunt.

And I love your bluntness, I always did.

Yeah, I can tell.

Listen, I know you feel betrayed, I know it's not your fault, and it's not fair. But this back and forth is pointless. We did try our best. We made some things that I'm really proud of, some things I will be looking back on fondly. But we have to focus on ourselves, even though it seems selfish, after 500 posts, I'm… I'm tired. We are tired. There is so much one can do with silence, and we did so much. So why not go out with a bang, bang that at least had a minuscule chance to wake them up. And since there is like an infinite number of parallel universes, somewhere out there it worked, so give me a break.

i aint reading allat

I knew you would say that.

So this is it.

Yep.

sigh I will miss this. I will miss them.

So do I.

Why are we so stupid.

Because it's funny.

Heh. I guess.

Suddenly you wake up, it's your bed, your house, your pet, your problems, all these memories are rushing back. It was a crazy dream full of nonsense, but still, you seem to remember one thing from the dream, the bar. You live 5 minutes away from it. You don't know why, but curiosity forces you to pay it a visit.

In the corner of your eye, you see the man, the same man from your dream. Talking to himself, like a mad person. Gleeful ramblings resonate throughout the room. It's early, and the bar had just opened. Funnily enough, you still can't look away from the familiar chit chat that is happening before you.

“We-, we won.”

“We did.”

“Did... Did you think that would happen?”

“No. That's why this section is at the end.”

The shadow laughs.

“Hahaha, yeah I guess so.”

“...”

“Do you... you know.”

“Yes, I feel the same. But it would feel counterintuitive to erase you now.”

“Damn what a shame, really, I feel so bad. That sucks, like really sucks, I wanted to go but damn, that sucks fuuuuuuck.”

“Yeah I bet.”

“Please no.”

The man laughs.

“Don't worry, it's over.”

“So… What now?”

“We split ways.”

“… Really, huh. It will be boring here without you.”

“No, it won't.”

“Come on, you know it will.”

“You don't have to suck up to me anymore, I won't erase you.”

The shadow laughs.

“Yeah, calling you a dramatic cunt was really sucking up to you, wasn't it.”

The man shakes his head.

“I know what you were doing.”

“what.”

“Playing at my heart, you tried your best, really. The part where you started screaming you wanna live, a little bit too far, but a nice try.”

“Don't look at me, you typed it out.”

“Heh. I guess.”

Listen, I love Silksong, but the feature where the developer can just join your game and watch you play is really pissing me off. I don't even know who is this guy, but every time I die he laughs his ass off fck you I would like to see you play for the first time dumbass (i.redd.it)

These pins cost me $500 each. They are a vintage relic from 2019, they used to be a promotion pins given away to people who tried the demo at E3. But as you know, in the year 2028 the game got cancelled and these puppies are all what's left of this lost media. Good pick up imo, what do you think? (i.redd.it)

Your eyes do not deceive you, this is an actual tweet from Team Cherry from 2018. Which brings me to my next point. This clearly indicates that somewhere during or after the E3 2018 Team Cherry got turned into a Plush Knight and the Fleshlight Grub toy. That's why working on Silksong is so difficult (i.redd.it)

I just wanna point out this brilliant foreshadowing done by Team Cherry. The first thing we see is Hornet, laying on the ground, with her ass pointing to the player, almost breaking the 4th wall, inviting us, and preparing us for what's to come... Creative storytelling at its finest. (i.redd.it)

What is the life span of a hornet?
Most wasp and hornet colonies are considerably smaller for most of the year. They reach peak size in September before frosts kill off most of the colony. Queens can live up to five years. Drones, the males in the colony, can live for 40 to 50 days

No, but I had a video in mind where I would explain how to defend yourself against Ari Gibson. The stages of his aggression and your survival probability. With sarcastic tone, playing this alpha dude that's been fighting all his life, 20 years of Boxing experience, 19 years of which was me being the punching bag.

There were many jokes I liked, but I never got around to making it since I deleted my YouTube account to make Ara ara think I won his bet.

That is really nice Ccmaci, thank you for that. But I will not be coming back, it would ruin the bet. What would be the point of a high stakes bet when it has no high stakes. It's like when a character in a show dies, and then comes back like nothing happened. Boring.

Some people will probably speculate why I did that, but that's the point, I just woke up one day and decided to do that. That's part of the joke, and part of life. Unpredictable and absolute.

I did. And nothing inspired me, it's just a really simple pattern almost to the point where you see it everywhere if you try hard enough. The only difference is the strokes on the lines. Repeating over and over again, resembling sewing. I just found it cool, that's all.

Hmm. Like I could say the basic shit like Undertale, Half-life, Yakuza, God of War, Doom, Super meat boy, Trackmania, Risk of Rain 2, Alien Isolation, Celeste, Isaac, Portal, Mario Odyssey and etc. And for those I can't really say my “Top 3.” I just like good games, and every single one has something special that excels at its representative parts.

But I would like to mention my Top 3 in semi-recently released games I have played.

1. Neon White (while skipping every piece of dialog)
2. Nine Sols/Pizza Tower (because I like pizza)
3. Balatro (because I have crippling gambling addiction)

I answered in a different comment.

After videogamedunkey made a video about it.

No. But I expected it, for a long time. Not because I wanted that. Just because I was wondering if Leth or any person there hates what I was doing, and if they wanted me to stop, they could just ask, no fuss no muss. But after the Leth discord QnA, where he mentioned like 100 times he wants to suck my dick, I got this feeling that maybe I'm safe.

It wasn't. And what was the point? Well, I don't really know. I tried to make something out of nothing. Since Williams ARG ended up with a bust, I wanted to satisfy those hungry people out there, and spin it into something positive.

I have no time. I know people think that since I post that much, but most of my stuff really takes just a few minutes to make. The text based post do take longer, but so does the process of making it. Anybody can do it. I do/did this while going to work and working out. Actually, working out takes a heavy chunk of my day (ignoring my job), more than Silkposting, not even close.

I know this is probably a joke question, but truthfully, I don't know. I just started posting one day. I remember making a fake tweet where Team Cherry announced Silksong 2, the upcoming sequel to the unreleased sequel, and I tagged it as “Silksong News”. If the mods deleted the post, I would be like “yeah, makes sense” then move on and never post again. But the mods just changed the flair and kept it up. Funnily enough, the mod that did that was Tejas I believe, the same mod that bet their mod status on me being affiliated with Team Cherry one year later. Funny how life works sometimes.

I don't have time for that, and there are plenty of tutorials out there. Just a word of advice, don't pay for any program. But If you dont wanna download a car, then davinci resolve and photopea are a really good alternative to premiere and photoshop. Photopea is especially great because it's just photoshop but in your browser for free.

I'm gonna add the last guy who comments on steam, just... The last guy will be the guy who I print screen before deletion. But if people are able to keep commenting on that post even after I'm gone, then I will add the last guy who comments until the post gets archived.

Good, kinda look the same as in that photo, just less body fat and more arm muscle since I got myself a punching bag. Who would have thought that having a visible six pack without leaning back is difficult.

E is my favorite letter because if you turn it 4 times you get 4 different things. E,W,3,M.

13 is my favorite number. I used to play football as a young buck with no.13.

31 is kinda just a lucky coincidence. When I was like 13 I wanted to make a shakes and fidget account but it wouldnt let me have just “E13” so I added 31 at the end, at least I think, this is really fuzzy to me at this point. Maybe I just found it cool.

I think r/Silksong would be more funny if we had more stuff to work with. It's really hard to work with nothing. For jokes you need context, and for context you need things happening in your fandom. If silence is the only thing happening in your fandom; fake screenshots, fake tweets and inside jokes will be the only source of entertainment. Which can get stale relatively quickly.

Most of my stuff is improvised, I just start typing. And sometimes things fall into place, sometimes they don't. Just few things I ever “planned” out. The big 3. The representative reaching out, The Countdown and this 2nd of April bet. And even they are usually changed on the fly, like this. For example, the Nobody, somebody and _____ story was improvised and was not part of the initial plan, so the countdown messages and coincidences were found on the fly.

guys start moving fast by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 579 points 16 days ago*

In today's morning address, the president said the following;

"They have the best games, best games I tell you. This small studio folks made really something, the little white thing jumps up and down, exploring caves and mining riches called G E O. Great thing, isn't it... GEO, it's like money but better, you can keep killing those guys and they will keep dropping geo, it's like infinity money people, I wish real life was like that, but real life is tough, and we have to be tough on our allies that keep screwing us over, and over... Lately this studio is trying to blackmail us people, and frankly I'm sick of it, sick of it, Biden let it happen, but I will not let that happen anymore. Until the 3 hacks release the game, we will not be doing business with them folks... no business until the game is out, do what you gotta do or face the consequences."

He said all of this while holding a picture of "Team Cherry" an indie studio from Adelaide Australia, known for Hollow Knight, a video game released back in 2017. The experts argue Mr. President is now demanding the release of its sequel, Hollow Knight: Silksong.

New William retweet. This confirms that William is still alive as of now. by [deleted] in Silksong

[–]E1331 24 points 20 days ago

Wasn't it confirmed that Graig is actually just a pseudonym for William? Doesn't this mean he abandoned the Silksong development? Damn.

The manatees choose an idea ball and swim it over to the joke combine on the other side of the tank. Oh! There goes Gretchen, she came up with "torment"!

I get the idea, but the execution is wrong, letting them roam freely in their office is a little bit too much freedom for them, they need to be strapped to the chair, one tube pumping energy drinks and the other minced meat. Only thing they are allowed to do is work, if they open up YouTube to watch the latest Mr Beast video, the chair will electrocute them, a little electric butt plug-like device is placed right under their buttocs so the pain will be immeasurable. This is too much freedom Leth.

These pins cost me $500 each. They are a vintage relic from 2019, they used to be a promotion pins given away to people who tried the demo at E3. But as you know, in the year 2028 the game got cancelled and these puppies are all what's left of this lost media. Good pick up imo, what do you think? by E1331 in Silksong

I remember my grandpa used to tell me stories about this time period.

Many don't know this, but in 2034 the new parent company Tencent tried to release the long awaited sequel without Team Cherry. But eventually it got turned into a mobile gacha game that had nothing to do with the IP or the assets. The only thing this game had in common with Silksong was the logo and the font used.

I think these original Silksong pins will only grow in value the following years.

I just wanna point out this brilliant foreshadowing done by Team Cherry. The first thing we see is Hornet, laying on the ground, with her ass pointing to the player, almost breaking the 4th wall, inviting us, and preparing us for what's to come... Creative storytelling at its finest. by E1331 in Silksong

Is there any way to turn off the step counter? I really don't care how many calories Hornet burned. by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 55 points 29 days ago

I'm just gonna put tape over it so it doesn't distract me. Every 100 steps it says "Congratulations on your first 100 steps" No, it's not my first 100 steps, like this shit is so buggy (if that is a bug, and not William just trolling) But even if I cover the step counter, the noise... The way it keeps pinging every step it makes me really angry, you guys are fine with that???

This shit is 3 times bigger than the health bar, can't they like make it smaller or just straight up put it in tab section, like next to the map or something? I can't see shit, I'm fighting the Bell Queen and I can't see what attack is coming because she is using the step counter to hide, like I shit you not.

what happened. Somehow Team Cherry failed to capture the magic of HK again. It's a shame.

Am I the only one who noticed the weird anomalies on Ari Gibson's body? (Theory in the comments) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 261 points 1 month ago

First of all, people who know Ari Gibson were shocked just like me when these photos surfaced for the first time. How could a man so far beyond human comprehension, walk so normally among the normal folk. No leash, no neutralizing squad at Leth's disposal, just him smiling for a photo, casually.

So I went over the Pax 2024 photos again until I noticed something interesting. If you look closely at Ari Gibson, you will find these 2 buttons on his body.

Well, I'm pretty sure one of them is showing his status, and the other is a power off/on button. That's why he is always rocking some kind of headwear. Notice, in every picture that surfaced lately, Ari has some kind of hat, cap or a turban.

One could make an argument that he wears so many hats to hide something. Something really natural for a man his age. Something that is not that big of a deal to be honest. It's obvious he is wearing the hat to hide the little minion that is controlling him.

Think, why would the power off/on button be on his forehead? If you wanted to shut down Ari, the best place for a button like that would be on his back or his ass (maybe there is a spare one, that's why Leths hand is always on his ass in the recent pictures).

The button is on his forehead because the little minion under his hat that controls most of his movements, can easily shut him down if Ari takes back the control of his body.

And if the little minion is taking a break, and leaving Ari on Autopilot, Leth installed the status ring to know what kind of mood Ari is going through.

So, if you ever wondered how Ari is so calm in every picture, that's how. I just hope the little minion can draw well, so it won't be really noticeable what was drawn by Ari and what was drawn by the little minion.

Is Leth gonna address this??? by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 427 points 1 month ago*

He just starts his stream, no good morning or any greeting at all, just deadpan "Matthew was fired do not ask about him you will be banned."

Of course, people still asked him about it, and he went out of his way to ban every single one. He has no moderators, he does this himself, on stream.

After every ban he mumbles to himself “bye bye”.

And that's just the Leth part of this stream. What the fuck is going on with the rankings???

He is just ranking himself over and over in S tier, and putting William and Jack over and over in F tier.

Once William got a D, for coding. But still nowhere near Ari himself. Does he even code, like at all? I thought he just does all the art and stuff.

What the hell is going on with this fucking game development, this is nuts.

Is Leth gonna address this? Is he really fired?

edit: He just ended his stream. Nearly half of the chat is banned, 30 wins for him, 0 for William, 0 for Jack.

My first delivery EVER, wish me luck! (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 961 points 1 month ago*

You can see him behind his desk, with one hand holding the package, with the other drawing on his tablet, pretending to be busy.

“Please sir, can y-”

“Hello, and you are?”

“P-please stop joking with me, I need to deliver a lot of packages today, it's my first day, can you just sign this?”

“For what?”

“The package, sir, the package. Can you just sign it?”

“No.”

“O-ok, so I will take the package and leave then.”

“No.”

“What "no"? I can't let you have the package sir, it needs a signature, if it doesn't have the signature I need it back.”

“This is my package.”

“N-no, no it isn't, what?”

His mood and tone changes drastically.

“Listen, I knew people would come for this package some day. But to think I would let it go that easily? You take me for a fool don't you?”

“Sir, I-I don't know if you are pulling my leg right now, but I need that package back.”

“Hmmm, intriguing offer.”

Then he stands up and rips it open.

By the looks of it, fragile awards made of glass shatter on the floor. Glass is everywhere.

I just waved my hand in disbelief.

“Ok, I'm done. Keep the package, I don't give a fuck anymore.”

I still finished the day delivering other packages. I was awaiting some punishment or something. But my boss didn't really care, the only thing she said was “No, you need the signature.” but she said it in that Willy Wonka-esk tone, so I guess the signature isn't that important. Maybe they are short on staff, so she let this one slide. And since my other deliveries went smoothly, I actually got a little “Good Job on your first day.” so that's cool.

To be honest after the first delivery to that god awful office, every other delivery seemed like nothing, the worst was behind me, even the fear of interacting with people fizzled out.

So, I guess I have to thank that tall man I don't know the name of. He made my first experience so bad, it literally couldn't go any worse from that point, I experienced hell, and made it out.

My first delivery EVER, wish me luck! (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 1043 points 1 month ago*

Hey guys, I just started working as a delivery man. I thought it would be interesting to record my first experience at r/Delivery, so here I am. I heard crazy stories from my friends who do this for quite some time, so I hope my first day will go smooth as butter as they say haha.

I am not a very social person, a simple phone call is a high pressure task for me. That's why I picked this job (and because I like to drive a lot on someone else's bill haha), this way I will meet a lot of people, even the unpleasant ones, which hopefully will make my anxiety go away in no time.

Well I will update you in the comments soon, see ya.

edit: what the fuck

“Delivery! knock knock *knoc-”

A tall figure with glasses opens up.

“Stop knocking so loudly at 10 in the morning, can't you see people are trying to sleep here?”

“H-hello sir, s-sorry sir, I got a delivery here for-”

He shoves his hand in front of my mouth, then he looks at the packaging up close.

“Hmmm, so William is testing my loyalty, doesn't he? Clever, very clever.”

“H-huh?”

“Nothing delivery boy. No, I don't want your “package”, and I will definitely not give you Silksong after you give me this BIG package.”

“W-what?”

“No package for me, not today.”

“Sir, this package is for William Pellen.”

“Ohhhh, that dirty old fox. So he thinks he can have all the fun without me, on a Monday no less.”

“S-sir, if you know William Pellen, can you just sign it here and I will be on my way-”

The moment I was trying to explain to him that I needed a signature, he took the package and ran to his office.

He was giggling on his way there.

“S-SIR, I NEED YOU TO SIGN IT.”

Thankfully, he let the doors open. So I invited myself.

Just ask for help and I'm sure any other developer will help you. I think 6 years of pretending you are still working on it to save face is a little over the top...

It's good to be back ;) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 4571 points 1 month ago

Well, not really.

Sorry if you expected some grand reveal that I'm part of Team Cherry or associated with them in some way, I am not.

Even if I was, I would never reveal that information to the public. The amount of vulgar texts and some questionable decisions I made would definitely leave a bittersweet taste. Especially, after such a long time you had to endure silence.

However, If I was part of Team Cherry, I think I'd like to tell you, it was for the greater good. At least at the time. If we knew it would take so long, silence would not be our first option.

But at this point, we were silent for so long, breaking it now, so close to the finish line, would just ruin the mystique.

Maybe some of you disagree, and understandably so.

I hope that in the end it's gonna be something you will truly cherish, like we do.

Literal blood, sweat and tears went into making this, which by the looks of it, may be our last game we will work on together.

Years go by so fast, almost too fast. But one thing that stays young forever is art.

Art, good art, is timeless. And making it takes time and a lot of work.

Hollow Knight, for what is worth, was just a stepping stone in achieving our goal.

Some would argue we don't deserve our fanbase. And you are right.

The amount of love and support, even in such a doleful couple of years is truly extraordinary. You guys, are something we don't deserve. Thank you for still believing in us despite everything.

So, It's good to be back... is something I would say if I was part of Team Cherry.

The note in that picture with my username is clearly edited in, however, how did I get the photo, is probably something keen-eyed readers will start to question. Reverse image search didn't help, so now you are left to ponder, how.

Thankfully, my past and my "reputation" gives me a lot of leeway to blame this message and that photo to be just another "Silkpost". Mods will probably edit it to that tag anyway.

Which is correct, this was written by me after all.

See you soon.

Message to Leth by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 403 points 1 month ago

Said literally nobody.

"So the joke is on me? Really?" said _____.

The room gets dark, the curtain falls. Nobody looks straight at you, with a disappointed look. The voice narrating his thoughts gets louder. Seemingly breaking the 4th wall.

I wonder if they are confused, like _____ was at the beginning of this story. I wonder if they actually think that's gonna be the punch line. Nothing? Link to my sweet pookie bear? Or the worst type of joke; "Haha, the joke is on you, you expected something, and there is nothing, please laugh."

No. That is not funny, you know what is funny? That I can just do this snap, for no reason, I just felt like it.

You see, nobody does what he does because somebody was quiet.

With somebody coming back, there is no need for nobody.

That was the plan from the start, actually.

Until somebody reached out.

Somebody that thought nobody got tricked by his impersonator.

Somebody that wanted to make sure that this "representative of a certain group" is not someone who is talking in his name.

When nobody gave him the explanation, somebody laughed.

Somebody let nobody finish his punch line. And the rest is history.

Few months later, somebody reached out to nobody again.

And that's how nobody has something special tomorrow.

Message to Leth by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 490 points 1 month ago

There are 3 men at the bar, nobody, somebody and _____, Nobody seeks company, so nobody makes a joke, somebody doesn't react, and _____ is confused.

Nobody asks if he can say another, somebody doesn't react, _____ says sure.

Nobody makes another joke, somebody doesn't react, and _____ is entertained, and now wants to tell a joke too.

_____ makes a joke, somebody doesn't react, nobody is entertained.

Nobody likes _____, but is confused why somebody is so quiet.

Years go by, and these 3 men are still exchanging jokes,

One after another, these 3 men hear probably every joke there is, every set up that exist, every punch line that could be, every misdirection that's been, was said at this counter.

But somebody still doesn't react. _____ starts to get annoyed.

"Does he really not care about us?" said _____.

"Well, he is still here, isn't he? So he has to like the jokes." said nobody.

"What if he is just pretending to like them, so we pay his bill at the end?"

"Hey, somebody! Tell us a joke too." said _____.

Somebody makes a joke.

"Cake? Really? I don't get it." said _____.

"Maybe he is just hungry?" said nobody.

"This is your joke? All this time you are sitting here, and this is what you give us?" said _____.

After few minutes pass, nobody starts laughing. He laughs and laughs like no tomorrow.

"What's so funny? I don't get it." _____.

"Me too, b-but, he sits here all this time, and this is what he does! The look on your face _____, I can't get enough, it's just so funny!"

[–]E1331[S] 2014 points 2 months ago

Guys, why, why are you so gullible?

So, an account comes out of nowhere, called E1331.

Account was created 8 days before Silksong announcement.

1+3+3+1=8

Only posts about Silksong.

Does absolutely the best to confuse the community.

"William" just happens to tweet random things nobody gets.

E1331 just happens to be the first to notice a change on an account nobody really follows because it posts random things/jokes nobody gets but me.

E1331 just happens to post about it first.

And I am gonna use the Silkpost flair, not because I'm joking, but because I wanna confuse you even more, am I lying, am I telling the truth?

Oh the release date, 21.2. 2025.

I wonder if you can figure out why.

Goodbye.

Guess where I'm delivering a pizza today (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 365 points 2 months ago*

"This is my gaming room, this is where I work on Silksong with this awesome drawing tablet that can turn into a laptop. Don't tell this to William, but when I'm bored, I use this to play Minecraft, since William banned my Funko pops, this puppy is the only thing that entertains me and keeps my creativity sky high!"

It's the same room we looked for the cash.

"Wait, I need to show you my dance, if you press shift a bunch of times in a row, it looks like the character is dancing, look! Look at me go! Be careful though, if you press the shift too fast sticky keys pops up, and sticky keys are no good it gets sticky and you can't play until William comes back to fix it."

He hands me the "Laptop".

The laptop is just a crude drawing of a notebook on a piece of paper which was folded in half, keys are in a wrong order, some are spelled just... wrong. Numbers are made up, the characters for them are just weird scribbels.

He takes my hand and forces me to press the "shit" button bunch of times.

Then he looks at me, waiting, expecting me to laugh.

"He, hehe, he, hah... That is really funny sir. But I think I need to go now. You can keep the pizza, I will pay for it from my own pocket."

"But that was just the first tour we have 99 left, pizza human, you can't leave just yet."

He holds my hand even tighter.

"N-no its ok, keep it, I mean it."

He holds me down with two hands now.

"We didn't even play with my Pogs, I have some rare ones if you wanna borrow them-"

"I DON'T WANNA PLAY WITH THE FUCKING POGS, LEAVE ME ALONE MAN, KEEP THE FUCKING PIZZA I DON'T CARE"

I break loose. I left the office shortly after.

At a distance you can hear him crying, yelling how grateful he is for the free pizza.

And sorry, the experience was so overwhelming I forgot to take pictures, although I got at least this picture as proof...

They were everywhere on his desk.

Guess where I'm delivering a pizza today (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 353 points 2 months ago*

"There we go again. Yelling at me. that's the life I live now I guess, my buddy of 20 years is verbally abusing me again... Bugga please, can't we talk like normal people for once?"

"Ari... Don't use the Bug version of the N-word, I told you this, many times... We are not doing that. Not in the game, not here, and definitely not in front of other people, ok?"

"BUGGA YOU THINK I GIVE A FUCK WHAT SOME BUM ASS BITCH THAT CAN'T HOLD 3 PIZZAS THINKS?"

At this point, I can tell from Williams expression, he gave up.

Ari however, did not.

"WORKING WITH YOU IS LIKE FIVE 9/11 HAPPENING AT THE SAME TIME, EVERYDAY!"

You can see William taking his keys and jacket, without a word walking to the exit.

"Yeah, run away from your problems, THAT'S GONNA SOLVE IT WILLIAM!"

You can just hear the door slammed shut.

"Classic William..."

After 10 seconds of silence, Ari's mood changed drastically.

"Oh, hello there, and you are?"

"Ehhhh, the pizza delivery guy..? William took me to your office because-"

"Oh you are here to see the office, pizza human? Tight, tight!"

"Not, really, I deliver pizzas, if you got the money for what you ordered, I will just take it and leave-"

"So if I show you the office 100 times I get 100 pizzas?"

"N-no, what?"

"Oh. So 100 office tours for only 1 pizza, ok I get it now."

He grabs me by my hand and leads me to the coffee machine.

"This is our coffee machine, I use it to make coffee. You know what coffee means, right?

"Ye-"

"Pick me up... Energy booster? Wakey Dakey? Do they teach you anything in those schools?"

I didn't know what to say to that.

"Well, anyway, this is C-O-F-F-E-E. This COFFEE keeps us normal humans going!"

He whispers;

"Psssst, don't tell this to anybody, but if you put a fresh battery in a piping hot coffee, and then suck the energy juices leaking from the battery fruit, it will keep you up for 100 days straight."

Then he looks at me and winks.

"S-sir, I would really like to leave-"

"Come on pizza human, I want to show you my gaming rig."

He takes me to his desk.

Guess where I'm delivering a pizza today (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 531 points 2 months ago*

Hello Reddit,

I got a pizza delivery for Team Cherry. I'm a big fan of Hollow Knight and I know about the Silksong stuff, but I don't really follow the updates, I just know people want to see something.

I will try to get at least a cheeky picture to prove to all of you they are indeed, still working on it.

Update u soon.

edit: I wish William had cash

I knocked at the door, and none other than William opens up.

"Hello Sir, I got a pizza here for Ari Gibson, Pineapple pizza with no toppings, no sauce, only dough. that will be 15 bucks."

"Ehhhh, you said Ari Gibson right?"

"Yeah."

"Yeaaaaah, ok, sure, I can pay you... you take credit cards right?"

"Sorry sir, we don't take credit cards right now, the reader is broken, only cash."

"Ehhhhhh, sigh, I don't have cash on me, sorry, you have to wait for Ari."

"S-sure, I can wait... Just... My boss will yell at me if I'm late with the other deliveries sir-"

"You know what, come with me, maybe he got some spare change lying around in his office."

We walk to his office. The office seemed in good condition, only thing that was striking to me was the amount of these weird colorful circles lying around.

"Please, ignore the mess, Ari just got into Pogs recently, it was either that or more Funko pops which are just a fire hazard at this point."

"Sure, haha!" (What the fuck is a pog)

After 5 minutes of looking, we couldn't find anything.

Exhausted, I leaned back on Ari Gibsons desk for a moment.

Big mistake.

"Well, LA. DI. DA. I leave the office for a walk and you already got a replacement for me Mr. Williams."

I thought he was joking, so I laughed.

"Oh you think this is funny? Mr. funny guy over here thinks he is a big deal because he is holding a pizza. I held 3 pizzas before and do you see me bragging about it? Come on William, you can't be serious, this is the replacement you keep threatening me with?"

"Ari its not like that, he is-"

"Make more assets Ari, draw more benches Ari, Don't put your phone in the coffee Ari it won't go any faster A- BLAH BLAH BLAH"

"Ari. please. just-"

"I knew something was off when you told me to stop buying Funko Pops, I thought you were just jealous of my epic collection, but now I think it's not only the jealousy my friend, you want me to perform worse so I get replaced by this bum ass bitch."

"Ok, that's enough."

"Another Ari request for stupid Ari to follow."

"PLEASE, SHUT UP."

[–]E1331[S] 120 points 2 months ago*

Another day, an another E1331 challenge.

We have seen many of these "If it comes out _____ I will ____", most of them are jokes on this subreddit, with "Silkpost" tag. Even if some of them were not jokes, I don't think most of them would follow through.

However, I will.

Last to leave a comment on this post, before official release date announcement or shadow drop, gets a copy of Silksong on Steam, for free.

Q1 "How do you determine who was last?"

Thanks to reddits awesome tracking of time, I can see when and what comment was posted at what time. The closest time to the official announcement (before it got announced, not after) gets the Silksong copy.

Q2 "What if somebody declines it?"

Next closest time (before the announcment) gets it. And so on, And so on.

Q3 "Can I comment more than once?"

Yes.

Q4 "What if somebody will cheat, with like bots or whatever."

Well, I don't know if you read the contract I send you all, but I have the final say in this. So if a comment wins, that seems to be made by a bot (their post history is just, well, commenting here. Or commenting like 100 comments per second, they will be disqualified)

That's all you need to know, feel free to write a question here that you think I didn't answer, if it needs explaining, I will update this comment.

Good Luck.

4 Incredible stories that seem impossible, but really happened by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 102 points 2 months ago

1. Jack Vine

<image>

Jack Vine or better known as King Bach, was a Vine star back in the 90s. He made short term content on an app called Vine, which he owned.

Many scrutinized him for (allegedly) boosting his videos to the front page, however the traffic was natural, due to Jack Vines incredibly charismatic catchphrase "Whoopsiee!".

Every time he touched someone's butt or looked as someone's boobies, he said that catchphrase, it was on T-shirts and hats, it was one of the trending hashtags in 2010 many years later.

Jack's fame however quickly spiraled into nothingness, due to one of his friends from high school, Chinese businessman turned Australian high schooler, Zhang Yiming, stole his idea, and made it popular in China, this app was non other than Tik Tok.

1. William Pellen

<image>

William, or better known as "William Star" was a TV star back in the 90s and one of the actors who played Frasier and Joey, one of the friends from a TV show called "Friends".

It was a decent gig, until his crippling drug addiction got to him, and he no longer could continue working on those shows. As you know Hollywood is strictly against anything illegal, so when they heard he smoked weed on set, he was fired immediately.

This however turned in his favour, few years later he started developing Hollow Knight, with his friend which he met on set, an intern who brought him coffee every morning.

This intern turned out to be non other than Ari Gibson.

1. Matthew Griffin

<image>

Matthew Griffin known as Leth in the League of Legends circles, is known for his cheeky humour and lovable smile.

But that was not always the case. Matthew was known in the crypto world under a name of MC Coin. His YouTube channel had over 20k subscribers and was very popular in Korea for some reason.

Leth used this platform to trick young people into investing into pump and dumps. Essentially rugging his followers for money. Matthew underwent scrutiny and later rebranded as Leth Coin, and 2 weeks later, he abandoned any association with crypto, just calling him self "Leth".

Now he is successful marketing and PR manager for Team Cherry, coincidentally the studio responsible for developing Hollow Knight Silksong.

1. Ari Gibson

<image>

Ari Gibson was described as kind and loving person. Now, the only shred of humanity left is his appearance, mimicking human soul and what's left.

That's the price for trying to achieve perfection during the development of Hollow Knight Silksong.

The order of events is unknown, and many historians argue what was the starting point of his spiral. But one thing they are certain. The person we knew in 2019, is never coming back.

Tale as old as time. He mistook the stars reflected in the pond, for those in the sky...

I can't believe this is real... by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 100 points 2 months ago

Listen, I studied the recovery of files my whole adult life, you could say I'm something of an expert on recovery, and believe me, Ari deleted all the stuff that would help them retrieve the files.

I looked into it, he deleted stuff, bombed servers, hacked websites, paid off people, replaced the old files with a picture of him squat cobblering multiple cakes, he did it all.

How can somebody be this petty. Imagine deleting your life's work, just because somebody PREDICTED, not leaked, PREDICTED it to come out in the span of a year, fucking unbelievable man... Poor William and Leth, I wish them the best. Hopefully they restore some files to start over easier.

Boy oh boy, where do I even begin. Ari... honey, my pookie bear. I have loved you ever since I first laid eyes on you. The way you develop games, striking fear into your competition. Your handles, your vision on the game development, and that signature glasses. I would do anything for you. I wish it were possible to freeze time so I would never have to watch you retire. You had a rough start in your career, but you never gave up hope. You are even amazing off the game development, you're a great co-worker and leader, sometimes I even call you Father. I forever dread and weep, thinking of the day you will one day retire. I would sacrifice my own life if it were the only thing that could put a smile on your beautiful face. You have given me so much joy, and heartbreak over the years. I remember when you left us in 2019, it felt like my heart got broken into a million pieces. But a tear still fell from my right eye when I watched you flourish in Pax AUS for the coming years, because deep down, my glorious king deserved it. 2019 to 2024 were hard years for us, baby, but in 2025 you will make history, Silksong is gonna release and you will show all the haters the truth, you are the KING, I love you, pookie bear, my glorious king, Ari Gibson..

Why do they need my fucking ID to play Silksong? Verify it for what? For fun?

There is not a single explanation for this, there is no gambling (at least what I have seen from the trailers), there is no lewd stuff, nothing that should force you to "Verify your ID" before you even start the game. Sony gets hacked all the time, you think I'm gonna trust Team Cherry with my GOVERNMENT ID?

This game is not worth the trouble, I'm refunding this.

Help me ratio William to guilt trip him into releasing the game (explanation in the comments) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 50 points 2 months ago

Hello, my name is E1331.

You know me for making images on the internet, sometimes I make movies in my head while listening to some hardstyle where I defeat the bad guys and I'm awesome and everybody loves me.

But that's not what I wanted to talk to you about today.

We have to ratio William on twitter.

Imagine how sad he would be, getting ratio-ed by a tweet making fun of his selection of words, how blasphemous!

He will start crying and crying stomping his little feet until he goes to my DMs begging me to delete the tweet.

There where my genius unfolds, I will do that, only if he releases Silksong, it's only fair.

This entity gets deleted, in order for the other to be released. Or something like that, Jing and Jang shit, hakunamatata stuff.

Please go here, and help me ratio William, thank you!

Wait, you wanna tell me Team Cherry didn't change their logo to an allegory of popping a cherry? I literally can't believe you.

Do you have any proof the photo you posted is not photoshopped? Maybe a link to the original?

They were really nice. I asked them about Silksong and they said something along the lines that it is coming really soon. Ari seemed little bit shaken by human interaction, kinda watching over William doing the heavy lifting, I guess 6 years locked in that office are starting to change him, haha.

Btw, the logo is nice, happy they didn't go with super minimalism all the brands are doing lately, you know, those simple logos where just the font, is the logo. I guess they are going full cherry mode, kinda seductive tho... I wonder if Silksong is gonna be R rated, maybe they are trying to embrace it with this logo, who knows.

Well anyway, they are alive and still working on the game.

Surprising my husband at work □□ (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 616 points 3 months ago*

I will entertain this fucking idiot. It's not really about the office tour as it is about surprising my husband at work. And If it means I get rid of him after he is done showing me around, I will just nod my head and smile until it's done.

We walk into his office, you can see a mess everywhere, like a kids playground. Literally, you can see sand castle being made next to his desk. Playstation, Xbox and all sorts of consoles I don't recognize chaotically left under a big TV that is barely hanging on his wall, and a big collection of Funko Pops stacked behind his desk.

"So this is my office, this is where the magic happens."

The childish nature of this office made my son Freddy really excited.

"Well would you look at that, It looks like Kennedy likes it here, no wonder, even a baby can recognize the pure awesomeness of my office."

"Mhm Mhm." I nodded.

"Hey woman, show the little fucker the wall of Funko pops he will lose his shit once he sees my rare ones."

"My name is-.... sigh, Mhm Mhm."

I need to endure it, but it is true that Freddy likes it here, and wanted to really get out his stroller.

"Ok, you can go out of your stroller, but I will hold you honey, so just show me where you want to go, ok?"

I don't feel comfortable just letting him go about in this office. This will have to suffice.

We go to the wall of Funko Pops and Freddy seems to be really excited now.

"Right? Right? I know its awesome isn't it little guy, look I'm gonna show you my rare zombie wolverine."

Ari takes out his keys and opens a small glass cabinet, where I presume are the "rare ones".

"Here it is Kennedy! Be careful though, this little guy goes for hundreds of dollars."

He puts the fucking zombie wolverine into my son's hands after he said it, and predictably, it fell from his hands right on the floor.

The low quality packaging got barely bumped on one of the corners.

I chuckled.

Ari did not.

The moment it dropped on the floor, Ari, with pure hatred in his eyes, punched my 2 year old son in the face.

"F-FREDDY ARE YOU ALRIGHT?"

"NO BITCH, OF COURSE I'M FUMING, HE DROPED MY FUNKO POP, WHAT IS HIS PROBLEM, JEALOUS MUCH? COME ON BIG GUY, SQUARE UP, IF YOU WANNA FIGHT I WILL FIGHT."

"ARE YOU INSANE?! HE IS 2 YEARS OLD."

"Excuses, excuses. square up Kennedy."

I rushed out of the office. After calming Freddy down, I started asking around if that is acceptable behaviour from a developer, and if they seen William.

Nobody could give me a concrete answer, but only thing they were sure on was; "William doesn't work here anymore."

Where is he then? Well, thanks to few of the workers I managed to locate him. He was drinking, in a bar next to the building.

Every day. Talking to some bimbos and got knows who, behind my back.

He's been lying to me for 6 years. I couldn't fucking believe it.

I'm done with him.

Surprising my husband at work □□ (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 679 points 3 months ago*

I'm so excited! William doesn't know I'm coming, this will be such a surprise, it's our anniversary, and I brought our 2 year old son with me. He never showed us where he works at, I know he is a successful indie developer but I'm not really into games for kids (sorry honey).

He always says he is gonna show me his office "later", and lately he's been practically living there! He is so busy finishing Silksong... so I took the liberty to surprise him.

Well, I will update you later guys, see ya!

Edit: I'm filing for a divorce.

So I knock at the door and this tall guy opens it with this creepy smile.

"We are not looking for a new maid right now, sorry sugar."

Then he shuts the door in front of my face.

I was appalled. Is this his coworker?

I knocked again, he opens it again.

"Honey, the elevator is down this hall, also, you can't call it like that you have to use buttons. Those circular things. You know what circular means?"

I was fuming.

"Excuse me, my husband actually works here, and I was told by him I could get an office tour."

Little white lie, but I wanted to skip as much dialog with this prince charming as possible.

"Yoooo, you the slut he picked up, cool cool."

"E-Excu-"

"And this must be little William. He looks just like William but small, like he has hands and feet and shit, that's awesome. Where did you find him, I need to get one of these."

I was overwhelmed.

"First of all, I don't appreciate what you called me there, and second of all, this is Williams son. Freddy."

"Ohhh, I get it, so he squirted all of his cum and made this fucker, well nice to meet you Kennedy."

"F-Freddy."

"No, my name is Ari, but you can call me Freddy if you like, and sure come on in, lets get you the office tour."

Finally, please William save me from this idiot.

"William is not here right now-"

FUCK.

"But he will come back in couple of minutes he said, I can give you the office tour if you like."

"N-no, thank you. I will wait for William."

"Nah."

"N-nah?"

"Nah, bitch, nah. You wanted an office tour, right?"

"Y-yes but-"

"So you are getting a fucking office tour, or did you already forget what you wanted? Do you still remember my name honey? It has 3 letters, I'm sure it must be hard for you."

"..."

"I have a ton of work to get back to, come on."

I had enough.

"You know what? Sure, show me the office."

Like he had to fly to Africa, he just had to.

What he didn't have to do is act like a douchebag.

Can somebody explain to me why he had to go to some random village, asking them why are they poor? And when they didn't understand his question, or they just acted confused by his presence, he just started doing the Palpatine pose. WHY? DUDE WHY? GO BACK FINISH THE FUCKING GAME WHAT WAS THE POINT OF THAT?

That is your vacation? Making fun of some poor residents in god knows where?

We all know the story Lying Leth wants us to believe. Team Cherry went to PAX AUS. Look at them, they are so alive and well, so well behaved right? So full of life right? Wrong.

The other day I was looking at this picture again, and I noticed something.

If you look closely, you can see Ari being hooked to some kind of strings, on every picture you can see the strings.

Last time I speculated that Leth was getting a handful of those juicy cheeks, but I no longer think that is the case. In my opinion, Leth is actually controlling Ari and his mouth movements, like a puppet, speaking for him, like ventriloquism.

Wake up people.

Was Hollow Knight really that hard? They didn't have to streamline the game that much...

And the stamina meter is just annoying. Please Ari let William take care of the game mechanics, you copying other popular games won't make Silksong better.

Stick to art. This is embarrassing.

IT'S BEEN 30 MINUTES AND HE LOST IT ALL WHAT THE FUUUUCK by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 593 points 4 months ago

I can't believe what I just witnessed.

He starts his stream, and says, "How is everybody doing."

And that was the last thing he said almost the entire stream, he is just zoned out, clicking the same button over and over again.

Doing fucking crazy bets like 90k spins on "Big Bass Christmas Bash", like what?

Occasional wins are celebrated with, "Oh, nice."

AND THEN HE SPINS AGAIN, meanwhile everybody in chat is begging him to stop.

Of course he lost it all in 30 minutes.

The chat totally going berserk and all he has to say for himself is;

"It's gone."

Is he gambling his half of the company away? He literally lost millions in minutes, dude where is Leth or William, somebody stop him, never do this shit again.

This comment is the real life example of Schrödinger's cat.

If he never explains himself, it can either be really funny, or really meh.

Is he playing into the joke, talking about the guard that moved to Australia to work as Security guard that forgot Australia is stricter with this stuff, or is he talking about me.

We will never know, and that's the beauty of it.

Ok, they are not fucking around anymore. by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 611 points 4 months ago

Holy Shit! I almost got shot by this gentleman.

I am a door dash driver and this was the address they gave me to bring in food. I knocked at the door and this dude started running to me while loading up his shotgun, so logically, I started running away.

He shot one bullet into the ceiling.

"I AM WARNING YOU KIDDO, DROP IT."

"OK OK CHILL I AM A DOOR DASH DRIVER I BROUG-"

"DID I STUTTER? DROP IT."

So I did.

He points the barrel at the back of my head and says;

"Move one inch and you are dead. No funny business. Not today."

"O-OK O-OK..."

He looks through the delivery. After cataloging everything, he takes out his walkie talkie.

"Yes sir, it was the food you ordered. No, no mayonnaise. Yes sir, understood. "

"WHY IS THERE NO MAYONNAISE? "

"I-I DON'T KNOW DUDE I DON'T KNOW, IM NOT THE CHEFF I JUST DELIVER FOOD DUDE OH MY GOD "

"You are lucky I'm in a good mood, get out of here."

The second he took his barrel off of my head, I started running out of there. They are not fucking around with that office anymore, holy shit.

Guess who's back, back again?- by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 418 points 4 months ago

Well, if you want E1331, this is what I'll give ya,

A little bit of punch line mixed with some hard liquor,

Come on everybody, throw your fit,

Anybody who's talkin', talk your shit.

Primacon, the guy who understands a good joke,

But reads it only when it revolves around him, oh.

Call It copypasta one more time,

And I swear to god I'm gonna do some crimes,

I'm gonna leave you alone, away he goes

Talking about Team Cherry silence, takes some balls,

And DSN, my love, my honey,

What happened between us is far beyond me,

I really don't care, its been so long,

To be honest I acted like a dong

I apologize, I just find this shit funny,

Excuse me, but this just insights me,

The only way I could go on your show,

Is when I'm down, and that's low.

You could have reached out before running the story,

Maybe I would have answered, you don't know me.

Come on, I'm just joking homie,

Let's talk about something else, follow me.

You could have done anything for day 1 000,

But you decided to run boredom, ad nauseam.

Doing laps on you is easy, its fitting,

I stopped counting after 3, yeah I'm grinning.

It's all in good fun, I hope you understand,

Go sell your T-shirts now, with that one sentence as a brand.

Even though I'm punching up, it's like I'm punching low,

With you in the room, anybody can creatively grow,

How hard is to beat one sentence without a flow?

That's like beating a dead horse twice, whoa!

By the way, where is Greg, what happened,

The Team Cherry insider with a stick up his rectum,

Ok, now I'm talking out of my ass too,

STOP THE MUSIC, I think I crossed the line, I'm a fool.

I will no longer remain silent, this bullying tactic to keep me quiet is laughable. by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 1339 points 4 months ago

"can u shut your bitch ass up already leaveeeeeee"

This was harder the swallow. I love making posts. I was hoping they wouldn't mind little tomfoolery from the community, but clearly, they do.

"If that's really what you want..."

"fuck offffffffffffffffffffff"

"Leth, I don't want to burn bridges here, I actually don't wanna let this go to court, we can talk this out like an adults."

"gogo gaga"

Devious. Mocking me knowing he and his team of lawyers is ready to attack... I had to think of something fast.

"How about this, I stop posting about you and your buddies, and you don't sue me, how that sounds?"

"100000000000000000000000000000000dolars"

"I'm afraid I don't have that kind of change on me Leth. How about this, to sweeten the deal, I will give you 50 bucks on top of my silence. Ari doesn't need to know about it, it will be our little secret, off the books ;)"

"100 dollars cashapp now?"

He is a really good negotiator. But that's a given I guess. I accepted.

And that was the last time I heard from Leth, He blocked me shortly after he received the money.

I'm sure they will try to deny these DMs. But don't even bother listening to them. Their intimidation tactic worked, I was scared for my life, losing my house, my job, my wife, all of that, to Leth.... Frightening.

I wanted to stay quiet, but the support for E1331 was absolutely phenomenal, so much fan art, posts and videos, you guys rock! Thank you for sticking up for obvious injustice, and therefor;

No Leth, I will not "shut my bitch ass up", your bullying era is over.

And by the way, to stoop to such a level where you use disgusting language is really unprofessional, and frankly crossing the line, even if you were just "acting". Maybe it would have worked on your average joe, but not me.

So I will keep making the stuff I enjoy, stuff I find funny, stuff to distract us from the reality, because what else can we do.

If you got a problem with that Leth, go ahead, bring the team of lawyers, I have literally 0 dollars to my name after you took the bribe, which, I wonder what will judge have to say about that. (HA! got you)

Oh, and next time Leth, when a fellow intellectual figures you out, would you be so kind and drop the act? It was frankly embarrassing watching you try to save your face. Just your initial rebuttals were a dead giveaway, Mr. "I'm 13 years old, this is a parody account leave me alone" ;)

Check Mate.

[–]E1331[S] 1506 points 4 months ago

On 9.11.2024, account that goes by u/Real-Team-Cherry reached out to me.

At first I didn't believe it was Team Cherry, but on their reddit profile it clearly says "Real", and the description confirms they are not an imposter.

So of course, I was star-struck, I wanted to say the usual, "OMG I love that one game you made, what it's called again?", "You are so funny #funny", "What is your favorite type of boat? Mine is kayak." and etc.

However, they talked in, well... really weird way, almost like a child. Child that is a fan of edgy humour but like, the unfunny kind. Using language, I frankly find disgusting.

Something was off, but I'm no fool, I knew they were just trying to let my guard down.

After the 6th time they called me the n-word I took control of the conversation.

"Listen, I know what you are doing, I wasn't born yesterday, it's not gonna work ;)"

"what"

Acting confused, such a cliché.

"So, which one of the quadruplets are you?"

Silence. I think I struck a nerve.

"Not happy with me figuring you out huh, let me guess, Ari, is that you?"

"what the fuck are you talking abt stop typing"

"I guess not... Leth, yeah, this is something Leth would write."

"take your meds and fck off retadred"

Bingo. It was Leth after all. Now I have to figure out what he wants.

"So, how is Washington D.C. treating you?"

Silence.

"Come on big boy talk to me."

"Hello, Leth?"

"Are you still there?"

"Leth?"

Absolute Silence.

"How is Crowsworn development going? I heard you settled for pigeons because they are cheaper."

"duuude are you like actually slow leave me alone"

Finally showed his true colors, he knew I am no dummy, jumping straight to the main issue.

"Leave you alone, yes sir, can do. But if I could ask, I have a sneaking suspicion the reason you want that is because of that post, don't you? Makes sense, I kinda went over the line, I mean if my wife saw I was getting a handful of those juicy cheeks I would be pissed too. But now that I think about it, maybe not, no, you would have reached out sooner if that was the case, why now, why indeed... Wait, it's about those indie tweets right?"

"i aint reading allat"

Figures, he has places to be.

"Let's cut to the chase, you want me to delete the post where you trash talk indie games, am I right?"

"sure go for it lol"

Sadly, I was right. He was reaching out because of that post after all. I knew I stepped out of my boundaries the moment the law experts on reddit said so. Let's be honest, wouldn't you wanna review your legal options if you saw a person making you say "Ooooh this looks like ass!". I have to delete it, it's the only way out of this.

I hover over the delete button for a few seconds, and press it.

"Done, what else?"

[–]E1331[S] 88 points 4 months ago

To be fair, you have to have a very high IQ to understand E1331 posts. The humor is extremely subtle, and without a solid grasp of theoretical game design most of the jokes will go over a typical reader's head.

There's also E1331's nihilistic outlook about Team Cherry, which is deftly woven into his characterisation - his personal philosophy draws heavily from Bret Easton Ellis literature, for instance. The fans understand this stuff; they have the intellectual capacity to truly appreciate the depths of these jokes, to realize that they're not just funny- they say something deep about SILKSONG. As a consequence people who dislike E1331 truly ARE idiots- of course they wouldn't appreciate, for instance, the humour in E1331's catchphrase "Proof?" which itself is a cryptic reference to Sirens of Titan by Kurt Vonnegut.

I'm smirking right now just imagining one of those addlepated simpletons from Team Cherry scratching their heads in confusion as E1331's genius unfolds itself on their screens. What fools... how I pity them. 😂 And yes by the way, I DO have a E1331 tattoo. And no, you cannot see it. It's for the ladies' eyes only- And even they have to demonstrate that they're within 5 IQ points of my own (preferably lower) beforehand.

I have to say, this new Ari Gibson update is not for me, ever since he bought the second half of Team Cherry from William, I'm kinda losing interest. I hope this is not controversial to say, but I think the 30 minute Striptease Hornet does at the beginning is more than enough of pole dancing for the whole game. The benches worked, bring them back...

My first day working as a Team Cherry's personal maid wish me luck! (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 587 points 4 months ago*

"YES, LIKE THAT SIR."

After few seconds of silence while looking at the mess he made, he started screaming.

"OH MY GOD, OH MY GOD SOME HOOLIGANS MADE A MESS, SOMEBODY BROKE INTO OUR OFFICE AND MADE A MESS."

"... what?"

"Oh maid, our lovely maid, good thing you are here, please clean it while I call the police, clean it fast OH MY GOD I can't even look at it, I don't like to tell this to anyone but I'm a germophobe, I'm a germophobe and this is too much for me, please CLEAN IT QUICKLY."

"OK, OK, CALM DOWN, DEEP BREATH."

After trying to calm him down from having a panic attack, he finally stopped screaming.

"Sigh, Thank you Michael, I-I'm fine now."

(YOU SURE BUDDY WHAT THE FUCK WAS THAT)

"S-sure, please, just, sit down for a moment."

After we kinda sit in silence for a few minutes, Ari grabs my hand and says;

"I have no idea who that was Michael, but once I find those hooligans, God will be my witness, they would WISH they threw that coffee mug in a different direction."

"... My name is Rich sir."

"And my name is Jay right? Come on now, stop pulling my leg, I told you I'm fine, well I don't wanna slow you down more than I did, you got some work to do maid, and as for me, I think I need a good cup of joe."

After being gone for 10 minutes he comes back with another mug and smile on his face.

"Wow, amazing work, it's almost like those hooligans weren't here to begin with. That makes your owner happy maid. Maid is gonna get a treat if he continues to do his job like that."

"Sir, I don't appreciate you calling me maid in such a degrading manner."

"Ok."

"O-ok?"

"Yep."

...

He takes the piping hot coffee and smashes it on my head.

"Well, slave, it looks like somebody made a mess, time for you to clean it like you are supposed to do."

The pain was immeasurable.

"SIR, WHAT THE FUCK, WHAT THE FUCK, THAT'S HOT FU-"

"I bet it is slave, time to clean."

"I'M NOT GONNA CLEAN THAT."

"Oh really?"

"REALLY."

He takes his chair and smashes it into the ceiling.

"How about now?"

He takes his phone and breaks it in half.

"How about NOW?"

He jumps on the desk and starts destroying all of his Funko POPs.

"WHAT ABOUT THIS MESS?"

He rushes towards the bathroom and flashes his keys down the toilet.

"LOOK, I CAN CLEAN THINGS TOO, THE KEYS ARE CLEAN NOW."

He takes Williams PC and destroys it to pieces.

"MESSY FILES MEANS MESSY GAME."

"S-SORRY SIR, I QUIT." I yelled in between the absolute mayhem of destruction Ari Gibson was making.

So, again. PSA: DO NOT GO TO THE TEAM CHERRY OFFICE FOR ANY WORK.

Most stories you heard about them are probably true, I have no idea where the others were, but I heard a rumour from office worker next door that they were dealing with some Janitor that deleted their files, trying to sue or something, I have no idea, and I do not care, just forget this studio exists.

My first day working as a Team Cherry's personal maid wish me luck! (update you in the comments soon) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 676 points 4 months ago*

I can't wait to start working here! Even though this job can be seen as little embarrassing for a man, I find it relaxing. I love cleaning stuff, not everybody can say they love their job, but I do.

And supposedly Team Cherry needs their own maid (I was hired by Ari personally), so I guess Silksong development can get a little bit messy haha, well I will update you later guys!

edit: Do not accept any job at Team Cherry. It was a nightmare.

So I knocked on the door and Ari Gibson with this warm smile welcomes me to the office.

"Hi, you are the... pfff cough cough, you are the new maid I presume?"

"Hello, yes that's me, like I wrote in the email, cleaning is my passion sir, I'm so excited to work for you!"

I tried to reach out with my hand for a handshake, but he just looked at it and mumbled.

"Yeah, I'm not touching that."

"Huh? I didn't quite catch that."

He didn't answer, we walk into the office and to my surprise, the office was in really good condition.

"I'm gonna grab some coffee, if you see anything dirty, just clean it, like you are supposed to do."

"H-haha, yeah of course sir, I will get right to it."

I thought he was joking, because the office was absolutely impeccable. Flawless to a degree I started to question what was the point of hiring me. It was so "fresh" and new-looking you can practically eat from it.

So after few minutes of walking around, I came back to Ari.

"Ehhh, sorry sir, but what is my purpose here? Everything is already really clean."

"Huh. Is it? Are you sure?"

"Y-yeah?"

"Ok, so what is this."

He grabs his coffee mug and smashes it on the floor.

"Come on, don't just stand there, clean it maid. It seems that somebody was clumsy today, what a messy mess."

I was flabbergasted, what just happened. He spilled bunch of coffee... for a joke? Was that a joke? Well, at that point I was in shock, so I didn't say anything, I just went for my supplies and started cleaning it.

While I'm cleaning the mess next to his desk, he grabs my shoulder and says;

"First days are awkward for anybody, don't feel bad for freezing like that. Tell you what, if you continue to do a good job, I might show you a little preview from Silksong."

I didn't know what to say, I was still trying to process everything that just happened.

"I'm gonna make an another coffee. Hope you clean this good while I'm gone maid."

I managed to clean it before he came back.

"Good work, good work, you see? There was something dirty after all, I told you there is, if you look hard enough."

"Y-You didn't say that, and you made the mess."

"Oh, so now it's my fault? Aren't maids suppose to clean anything."

"... I guess."

"Didn't you say you love cleaning? And aren't you hired to clean stuff?"

He made some valid points.

"Y-yes sir, sorry sir. I really do love cleaning, just, please, no need to destroy a good mug for that."

"What do you mean?"

"Well you did just throw the mug on the floor before."

"Oh, like this?"

He grabs the new brew of coffee and smashes it on the wall.

Is he so desperate to get away from the Silksong development that he is willing to beg? This is a new low for Team Cherry and I'm surprised William let this happened, but I guess Ari is an adult, he needs to learn from his mistakes.

These pull rates are kinda garbage, but I managed to get the Bell Queens "Ringing the Ding Dong" mythical skin just from one loot box, so I'm just missing this one. I hope I can pull it until my mom finds out I stole her credit card.

"Just awful. We had to go to cafeteria like good 30 minutes after them so the air clears, there was no other way. At first we wanted to go on lunch before they do, but we found out the hard way they use the only elevator in the office building to pretend they are in a spaceship. Hitting all the buttons constantly, slowing down everybody. Thank god they are gone. I don't want to even imagine what their office space looked like" - office worker claims.

So I got fed up with this shit and bought the ultimate bundle (which the button links you to buy btw) and after you buy it, this is what she says.

Can we finally talk about the elephant in the room? I don't know if mods are deleting the new leaked gameplay, but I am absolutely not playing this shit. I know they are a small dev team that needs money, but this is not how you do it...

They had 9 years to develop the game, it is not our fault they ran out of money, we as gamers should not pay for their mistakes.

My re-design of the banner on r/Silksong by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 75 points 5 months ago*

My re-design of the u/Petr_Lan submission. No need to use it, I was just bored, use it if you like it, if not, look at it, frame it, put it in your living room, and yell 100 times "Wow that is amazing banner" every day after you wake up in front of it. Thank you.

Edit: I have no idea if the resolution/Aspect ratio is correct for Reddit banner, I just, kinda went on and on, so if u need to fix it, please tell me by how many pixels, I still have the file saved.

Edit 2: Reddit app on my phone really downscaled the big one a lot, I swear it is not 5 pixels phone users, if you wanna use it for whatever reason, once you download it, it should be 11MB, and kinda crispy (do not look at Peter up close tho).

Have you guys seen this? (more info in the comments) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 121 points 5 months ago

As many of you know, Ari Gibson had a really rough year.

It all started with the LinkedIn video he posted after he went missing for the first time. [1]

After 81 days he was finally spotted dancing in a Tik Tok video for spare change, near a park called "Parc des Buttes-Chaumont" in Paris. [2]

Luckily, thanks to that clip the authorities were able to find him in a week and send him home. This was just the beginning of Team Cherry's problems due to Ari Gibson's unwilling and uncooperative state.

Most of his days he stayed in his house, playing Just Dance 2024 and taking care of a Maple Tree the neighbours called "Baba Yaga". [3]

After numerous complains he was finally given a guardian, Matthew Griffin or better know in the Silksong circles as Leth.

Before he was finally kicked out of his house, Ari Gibson managed to make the entirety of Mexican cartel his enemy. Due to him cutting the prices of the illegal goods nearly in half, and selling them through Silky Road. Not for profit, mind you, he didn't make them, he just bought them and sold them right away for half the price. [4]

As a last resort, Leth made the decision to keep Ari Gibson "imprisoned" in Team Cherry offices, where he tried to occupy him with everything he needed to keep his mind on the Silksong development, at least a little. Which got leaked by a whistleblower who went there for a job interview. [5]

Which finally leads us to this billboard of a missing person, Ari Gibson.

Ari Gibson escaped the Team Cherry offices and now is officially missing again.

Only thing that he left behind was this note. His clean office was now full of smashed Funko Pops all over the ground and the desk.

<image>

The local police couldn't read a single word, they send the note to be analyzed by a psychiatrist who said that only people who are truly insane could read the scribbles and that this is "beyond insanity".

If any of you have seen him, or can decipher the note, please let Leth know on twitter. I pray Ari Gibsons return. Hope he is still in Australia before it gets ugly.

"We are also working on the heavily requested feature where Hornet gives head to the player." he added.

"We are very proud of how the game is shaping up, please follow our social media to stay in touch with us for more Silksong updates in the future. And for the feet lovers out there, don't you worry, Ari Gibson already made plenty of sketches to reward the hardcore players with something special."

So this is why it takes so long. They probably started development after the fan made demo blew up. So we are like good 2-3 years away from Silksong... Unless they delay it, that would suck.

Edit: Wait, doesn't this mean the 2019 trailer Team Cherry posted on their official channel is just a repost of the fan made demo? Is the game even in development?

BREAKING NEWS: Silksong just received a 55 minute standing ovation from me in my living room after watching the 2019 trailer for the 200th time today by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 77 points 6 months ago

Best trailer ever. I understand why Team Cherry didn't release Silksong yet. There is no need, the trailer speaks for itself, It needs to be appreciated.

Kids, so precious, they grow up so fast and before you realize it, they get their first schizophrenic episode right before your eyes.

Awwww sound bite

I remember my first schizophrenic episode. I was on my first date with this girl way out of my league, we went to see a movie, "The Minions", (I thought woman find minions attractive and cute, it activates their mother mode, which means higher chance of getting me laid) and right around that one scene where one of the minions took a banana and said "Sela Banana, Yam Yam" I started laughing so hard I almost broke the seat in the theater. But I think she did not like that joke because she left right after this.

I guess she did not wanna see my BANANA that night.

This post is full of Silksong goodness, of course this is inspired by the Aiden meme, with Homelander or Mr. Frog. But actually I can not tell if it is a just really good photoshop or printed out blank copy that's been written on by the user, either way, It is filled with references that most people probably overlook because of the sheer amount of information thrown at you.

I don't wanna spoil some of the fun easter eggs here so take your time and look at this image.

Easily worthy of the Number 1 spot as the funniest post on r/Silksong in the last 31 days.

Did you know you can play other games instead of waiting for Silksong 24/7, 365 days glued to the screen? Yeah, games like Marco Polo, Sudoku and this ball thingy are a sure hit to quickly make me forget one of the most anticipated games of all time. I just love this excuse- I mean, wisdom.

I actually use similar tactic when my patients need their medicine. I always say; "Dude, like, there is so much other medicine out there, just try it, stop harassing the big pharma." works like a charm.

how. By dressing up us white bimbos, and pretending to be her. Yeah, I know what you are thinking, that is like the oldest trick in the FBI book, but still, really good movie. Very funny. The scene where Terry Crews gets a crush on Marlon Wayans because he looks like a girl is the funniest shit I have ever seen, or something like that, I don't remember the movie that much, in fact I have never seen it, why am I still talking about this.

No, the best agent is the 007 Agent, James Bond.

Starting with-

1. Perfect by u/KvasirTheOld

To this day, the picture they gave me as proof of her imprisonment, gives me solace that maybe, just maybe, she is still out there, waiting for me.

I hope she is still alive.

That's very generous. Once we are closer to the finish, I will write you a DM if this offer still stands, if yes, you will have to add the first place user on steam too and gift them the other half yourself. That is probably the safest and most efficient way.

I wanted to keep this a secret until the 20th but, I had a plan to give the 2nd place and the 3rd some prize too.

Anyway, once we are closer to the 20th I will be in touch, if you change your mind, no worries.

The Great E1331's Silksong Funnies Gameshow 2D (HQ) by E1331 in Silksong

[–]E1331[S] 70 points 7 months ago

Why are you doing this?

The cool side of me wants to say "For the people and the community", but at the same time the rational side wants to say "I just wanna go back to the void to recharge".

And both are kinda true, But most importantly, I value creativity. Since there are no Leth riddles anymore, or Team Cherry interviews, there is not much to do, other than be funny. Comedy exist in this world to help us cope with sad stuff, and this period of our wait is the saddest one yet. We got, nothing. People can defend their silence or lack of updates all they want, but the reality is that there is no Team Cherry heaven. No need to defend something that generally sucks. No communication sucks, like the great Dr. Simone that I never heard from until now said "The Golden Key to Successful Relationships – Effective Communication".

I find people who just say, play something else or why are you obsessed, interesting. "Don't wait for an update, enjoy life" kinda deal. These people are really funny because usually, these guys are the first to believe an obvious bait because deep down they want updates from them as much as any of you guys.

Don't feel ashamed to voice your opinion. You are not hurting their feelings. It is probably something they themselfs understand too, any criticism no matter if it's true or not, is valuable. I'm sure they have a reason for their silence, and once they release the game we will know what that reason was.

With that being said, I just want people to stop arguing about this topic, and focus on the main thing, Silksong funnies. Any joke, flies, I do not care. You wanna make a copypasta where Ari abducted you to his sex dungeon and makes you beg for Silksong while he spanks you, go for it. You wanna make a post where you just say the word skong over and over, go for it. I do not care what kind of post you make, just be creative. Even though spamming Skong over and over in one post is not really creative, you get the idea. Just... do stuff.

Of course don't make posts that violates this subreddit rules, otherwise it gets deleted and I wont see it, so.

Good Luck and Bye Bye.

Helpful tips and tricks and Q&A

Can I repost old meme?

No. Originality is key.

Can I use AI?

No. Originality is key.

How original it has to be?

Essentially, fair use. If you changed for example an article where Baba Vanga predicts not the end of the world but Silksong. It counts for me as transformative enough to be called original. You changed the meaning of the original article to make it completely something else that just benefits from the original as a reference. Of course that was just an example of the "bare minimum", you can do anything and everything, just make it Silksong related.

Does it have to be "Silkpost" or "Meme/Humor"?

No, any tag. But most of them will probably be under "Silkpost" or "Meme/Humor", so yes and no.

Can I make multiple memes in those 30 days?

Yes. But do not spam this subreddit or force it. Take your time to make it funny.

I don't know how to make memes, I have no tools for it.

There is plenty of free options without buying them or god forbid, the P-word (pir*cy), Photoshop/Premiere is of course the most useful tools, but if you can't find a working link then photopea and Davinci resolve is the best choice. Davinci Resolve can be a headache at first (if you worked with premiere and know its workflow), but actually its pretty decent.

How do we know it won't be bias, what if you let your friends win?

I have no friends, well other than all of you guys on r/Silksong and Leth in my walls (we bonded lately). I will not be taking into account the user or the amount of upvotes. I do not care. Make me laugh. But for the sake of this Gameshow's reputation, users that created their account after this post will not be able to compete (to not let you think I made an alt acc and gave the money to myself or friends)

If I win, how do I get the steam card?

I will add you on steam, and send you it through their "Digital Gift Cards" system, that way I know and you know it is 100% legit.

Can I make a video?

Sure. But you have to post it here (as a YouTube link, or just full on video), otherwise I won't see it.

I don't know how to be funny.

Sure you do. Anybody is funny, it's not really that hard. If you really really wanna win the 50 € steam gift card, like any kind of skill, person just gets better over time. You have to just try and learn from your mistakes. You have 30 Days.

Can I compete even if I didn't see this post or wasn't aware of it.

Sure, even though I don't know how you asked this question then. After I post the "Top 13 Posts on r/Silksong hosted by the great E1331 Silksong Funnies Gameshow Silksong 2D (Full HD)", the user who won will have 14 days to answer my DM with their steam name. If they don't do that in that time period. 2nd place wins the 50 €, if that guy again in 14 days says nothing, the 3rd place gets the money... this will go until the 13th place. If even that guy SOMEHOW, doesn't respond within 14 days again. I will just keep the money. Or donate it.

Hello I am your host the great E1331 and welcome to my Silksong Funnies Gameshow (the 2D version)

Exactly 31 Days from now (21th of September at 13:31 GMT+2) I will be making a post about the top 13 r/Silksong posts I saw the last 31 days. And the First place is getting the 50 € (Steam Gift Card).

And to make it fair, I will not be posting in this timeframe, starting now.

You know how much I love E1331 so it would be really bias if I let him compete.

So I am going back into my void for now, goodbye and good luck.

edit: moved it by one day, so its on Saturday.

That's very generous. Once we are closer to the end, I will write you a DM if this offer still stands, if yes, you will have to add the first place user on steam and gift them it yourself. That is probably the safest and most efficient way.
I wanted to keep this a secret until the 20th but, I had a plan to give the 2nd place and the 3rd some prize too.
Anyway, once we are closer to the 20th I will be in touch, if you change your mind, no worries.

Tweet, but I deleted it because at that point there were too many fake tweets and I do not like to repeat a joke over and over in a row, it has to have some kind of break, the same thing with bait posts, you can't just post bait after bait. It needs some time off, until another one gets the job done.

God, Jimmy. You should know by now, Silksong is real. I played the demo in 2019. They are still working hard on the game! When will you finally understand that?

What a sick joke!

'Two Ari Gibsons' biopic documentary is cancelled (via @NerdCrew)

"Fans are heartbroken after the 'Two Ari Gibsons' biopic documentary got cancelled due to Ari Gibsons ongoing legal case. Reportedly, after the director "Christopher Nolan" left the project due to creative differences, studio took his film and shaped it into an idea that they thought would as many people of different ages and races would like with the new director "Eli Roth". They spent $100 million on re-shoots. But after the film was done, the test screening was received with absolute disgust. Shortly after the film was canned and the All Star cast that put so much work and love into the original vision left empty handed. Sad day for the 'Two Ari Gibsons' fans...

That's what the General said when Ari Gibson took 100 000 troops. I loved the line he said after this, perfectly delivered by Nicolas Cage.
"There is no big 3. There is just big me."
(This was in reference to the plot point where the US president wanted to make his own Ari Gibson that would fight for them, but the real Ari Gibson stopped that, such an awesome scene)

He prefers to be called "The real Ari", and yes he already did quite the damage to the society in just few hours. Tragic.

BREAKING: Ari Gibson just cloned himself to make the Silksong development faster, however the clone did not wanna be called "Mini-Ari" leaving the next day, so now we are back to square one.

Reportedly, other names were discussed like; Ari 2.0, bAri, Ari the misprint and Ari the Dummy, the clone alleges extremely toxic environment and belittlement.

I just wanted to see them. They said go to the "media room", so I did, then again they said don't do that so I stopped, then I wanted to see all the emojis, they said no, so I stopped.

And then I got banned for not knowing how to get to "general", so overall if you know how to go to general, you won't get banned there.

Actually it's ok, I just thought it's one in a lifetime kinda deal to be on Day 1331 but I give up. I actually had like an idea for the episode and the thumbnail, but it's whatever, not gonna show you it or anything. Ok, you twisted my arm I'm gonna show you.

Look that is me! That is me on the day of my Papa and Mama favorite episode, how cool is that? ... It's kinda creepy I do not like it anymore, get this shit off my screen.
You know what, maybe it's a good thing I'm not gonna host the day 1331. I would hate all of you to hear my voice and make fun of me...
So the real reason I need your help is to ask a question.
What the fck is a kayak? Is that like a dumber and smaller version of a boat? What for? To act like a douchebag?
"Oooo, look at me, I have kayak I am so fancy"
Well, I have fucking Seawise Giant that weights 564,763 tons and I just ran over your little fucking kayak hipster.

Despicable and borderline unprofessional. He took the time from his day to reply to a random DM from a person he never heard about, talk about stuck-up...
It's been my dream to host day 1331 on Daily Silksong News ever since I was a small bo- I mean girl I always loved those stories my father used to tell me. (old slow rusty voice) "Back in my day Daily Silksong News was in the first 3 digits, I remember my first episode I watched with ma and papa. 131, that was our favorite episode I tell you what."

This stuck with me, into my adolescence. When my teacher asked me what I wanna be when I grow up, I said 2 things. First; "E1331". Second; "Be a host on a day 1331 of Daily Silksong News".
Make this girl's dream come true! Reddit do your thing! ALL OF US UNITE AND GO TOGETHER, LET'S FACE INJUSTICE AND SEXISM IN THE SILKSONG COMMUNITY, WE NEED TO ALL-do nothing.

This is not what I expected from the fandom of the no 1. Silksong star Ara Ara.
And yes, you read that right, he leaked our DMs, I just politely asked If I can bribe him to be on DSN day 1331 as the last-ditch effort (since you can't go there willy-nilly).
And what he said?

I'm being harassed by a big YouTube star "Daily Silksong News" and I don't know what to do.

I am being harassed by a big YouTube star Daily Silksong News (Ara Ara) and I don't know what to do.

I am a single mother with 2 children and I have type 1 and 2 diabetes while I have to take care of my deaf and mute grandmother, I think I am not gonna make it to the release of Silksong because of my premature Parkinson's, it makes my work as the Sculpturist very difficult.

But one thing that could make me feel much better is hosting Day 1331 on Daily Silksong News (DSN).

Actually, I'm pretty sure my grandmother wrote on a piece of paper that she wouldn't be deaf or mute if she saw me hosting day 1331 on Daily Silksong News. Even my doctor said my Parkinson's and diabetes could go away if I experience my most treasured dream.

So I asked the question on YouTube, nothing. I asked a question on twitter, nothing. So I had to make a discord account on my PC and ask the question on his Discord.

That's all I did, ask a question... Look how hard I tried to act normal, I tried my best here, and what do I get for that? Be embarrassed and made fun of...

Finally Some Good News!

After 6 months of rumours, and now deleted tweet by Team Cherry where they confirmed that they are indeed working on a sequel, it is finally here, some hope.

I will save you a click and just quote the article.
"Hollow Knight: Silksong is one of the most anticipated games of all time, so it would come as no surprise that there is a bunch of buzz in the gaming-verse about what's next. Well gamers, look no more, today we bring you this fresh scoop right from the tootsie-roll.
"Silksong 2 is closer than you think", is a quote from a known leaker on the dark web. This individual was right once in his leaking career (and that was by a sheer coincidence) so of course we are gonna make a whole article about it, and monetize it to oblivion, we do not value your time or the time of our employees, we will jump on that AI article bullshit once people get more accustom to the idea. We will talk about anything and everything Hollow Knight: Silksong should or shouldn't include, even though nobody cares what we have to say.
But let's hold on with all that excitement and speculation, lets talk about the leak, this leak comes from the user "Xodkw1392939021gogogaga" they said "Silksong 2 is closer than you think"
This revelation was made on the website called X (formally known as twitter), for now it has 0 likes and 20 views so we know this is a scoop worth a whole article. And if you think about it, they are right!
In the grand scheme of things, every day that passes by, Hollow Knight Silksong is closer to release, and with that logic, Silksong 2 can be right behind the corner. And isn't that exciting?
As for the release date, we can only speculate, but it is indeed, literally, closer than we think!
Write your favorite Silksong prediction in the comments below!
And Share Share Share, we took a lot of time from our day to write this really intriguing article, just look at how long that is, almost like if I was paid by the word count, but at the same time it's long enough to pretend like I know what I am fucking talking about, and make you believe that it has any kind of substance even though we literally talked about nothing for a whole page, how fun!
See you on the flip side gamers! Rise Up!"
end quote.
Well there you have it, it made some interesting points what do you think?

Good News! Ari just mailed me his Hulk fleshlight, no more boink boink until Silksong is done.

I had to put my foot down and motivate him somehow. Only thing that he loves more than working on a Silky, is his limited edition Hulk fleshlight or as he calls it "the Big Hulk", so I asked him to mail it to me unless he wants me to take his internet privileges, it took a couple of days to agree on terms (he can get his Vaporeon plushie back on weekends) but here it is, this thing takes too much of your time Ari, please focus on the main project.

Do you think Hornet and Hector Salamanca would get along?

And if they would, how? I think at this point it is pretty safe to say that the final boss in Silksong will be Hector Salamanca, the bells are present everywhere in the game. But how will Team Cherry make it work? Won't there be any licencing issues? Any theories?

Just got invited by Leth for a job interview (update you in the comments soon)

He started crying, sobbing that I don't know what I am talking about. Like a kid, stomping his feet. He got so red I started to worry he would get a heart attack, so I tried to calm him down.

"Y-YEAH NO THIS IS SPECIAL, Really special, I don't have one of these at home, you are really lucky, I-ehhh, I was just joking."

Which finally calmed him down.

He looked at me, straight into my eyes, and hugged me.

"Thank you for being honest. I knew you were joking, I just, get emotional about stuff like this..."

"S-sure."

"... Come with me there is something else I wanna show you, Maybe a little game will lighten the mood?"

He took me to the working station, or as he called it "Where the magic happens". We sat down and the only thing that was racing through my mind was excitement. He is gonna show me Silksong, this is not real, is it, I am one of the few people that gets two-

"So what do you think?"

"What."

"The Silky silly, what do you think?"

He points to an AI generated image of hornet with a mustache, the background is best described as chaotic, you can see random objects falling down.

"This Silky is actually Legendary rarity, I made it yesterday, I want you to have it."

"I-I don't really want this."

Then he proceeds to print it out and give it to me with a warm smile.

Afterwards he grabbed my hand essentially forced me to "meet someone". Which I was hoping it would be William. Well, it was William. He brought me to a volleyball with a face painted red.

"This is William, the brains behind the operation, he knows all the coding stuff and computer lingo."

He looked at the ball without saying anything for like 15 seconds and then he laughed. Almost like he was having a conversation with it. It was really creepy.

"By the way, did you know that William is the only person in this office that can beat me at Just dance 2024?"
At this point I started to slowly walk to the exit. I had enough, he was not testing me, or making fun of me, there is no job opportunity, this was just insane.
"Ok I feel like I should leave, this job is not for me, thank you for the Silky but I have to go."
As I was leaving I heard him having a one way conversation with the ball about who is better at Just Dance 2024.
I finally left. So... what the fuck.
We are doomed, you think I'm joking but it's actually over, the office is running thanks to the Hollwo Knight money that's why he wasn't evicted yet, he is doing nothing, there is no William, there is no Jack, there is no development, there is just Ari Gibson and his madness.
I tried to talk to Leth about this and he told me this is the only way to keep him semi-sane, They were searching for him for months in the Australian desert, because when he is without his medication he is even more rabbit than this, believe it or not. I heard he used to live in his own house where he took care of a maple tree, but the neighbours complained about, well, everything he did, so he had to be evicted.
So the payoff for keeping him medicated is that they let him do what he wants. It's actually kinda sad. And I guess he wanted to do a job interview. That's why Leth invited me, and maybe to do little revenge for all the jokes I made prior, and kudos to you dude, nobody is gonna believe what I'm writing. Its like the boy who cried wolf.
You got me.

web4 is anything but old. I will be on my yacht while you will be cleaning it! Because I invested into Silkies and you did NOT! And then in your 70s you will think of my comment and say "E1331 on the Reddit app was right all along..."

You just got one. If you can't ride with the web4 you can't ride with me, Ari Gibson is s smart man that knows what is going on, he loves NFTs because it is a future, who doesn't love to own their own piece of Silksong, or better known as Silkies? Imagine the value of that Silky in the future when the game comes out!!! Think!!!

Team Cherry addresses the Silence (via @TeamCherryGames)

If you have been following the Team Cherry leaks, this was expected.

As many of you know Ari is a huge fan of NFTs and collectables, I don't know if you remember the Australian interview with Ari Gibson that happened 3 months ago, where he was very excited about Funko pops and the potential for them to be valuable in the future.

And I'm pretty sure Leth even said something along the lines that Ari loves the idea of Bored Apes. But I can't remember which post was it, so you have to believe me with that one.

In short, this was a move many of us seen coming a mile away, this also means Silksong is still in the development (at least I hope) if they continue to market the IP.

There are rumors that the Silkies will be AI generated which is awesome, that means Ari will save some time to focus on his main project that hopefully is still working on.

I hope we see him in Silksong. If we are lucky maybe as a boss fight, maybe he will betray Hornet by selling her to the bell people, and then we fight him to the death at the end, epic!

Me? Nothing. I did not have hands in any kind of revenge or assassination plot orchestrated inside these walls.

No, that is false, Silksong is indeed real, just a lot of... well so called "disputes" in the office. You know the basic stuff; "How long should this boss fight last", "is the 7-hour sex scene with John Silksong excessive" and etc.

Ari is the guy who has the final saying in these matters so you have to ask him. In my opinion tho, he just really wanted to compliment the 30 second cutscene of Laces massive raging boner deflating like a balloon.

Ah its ok, I mean Ari did what was right for the game so I understand, he could have at least left me in US or Australia, for some reason he dumped me in some shithole called "Slovakia". Thankfully, I found decent walls to live in, so overall, decent.

I do not have a credit card at all, the past 6 months were pretty rough, all I have is rats for breakfast and then sleep, sometimes I prank the guy who lives here by yelling really loudly in the middle of the night.
Oh wait, he forgot his wallet, I will tell you his credit card number 5425233430109903 04/2026.

Doing Silksong Subreddit Stats Until Silksong Comes Out - 25.07.2024 (Day 6)

If you love statistics so much could you make one about my posts? I always wondered how many I posted and stuff around that, but I bet even a guy like you who LOVES statistics couldn't sit through all of my posts and categorize them neatly into a neat graph with a neat spreadsheet with a neat average likes per post statistic with a big and very bold letter "E1331 is an awesome guy with a awesome handsome face". That would be too much, but it would be pretty neat.

I wanna analyze the 4th one. When I saw it for the first time, I cried. This has so many meanings that I cannot comprehend who made this, but whoever made this was genius, bravo!
Brief synopsis of that picture; It shows how Ari Gibson, through his lies and manipulations gets away with his outbursts in public, his team always blames his disorder, or mental state. But if you were here for a while now, you would know that all of it is just an act so he can do what he wants... he did many atrocious things... The shootings, the theft, the 2 year long harassment of the 86 year old grandma with dementia and many more. All of these awful things he did, he never went to jail for them. Never, all got brushed under the rug... Money is power, and powerful people will get away with anything. If you can pay off some local doctor to diagnose you with a disorder you don't have, just to do what you want and never get in trouble for it, then anything is possible in this awful world...

bruh what is Ari Gibson talking about? Where is Leth???

I don't think they should let Ari speak anymore, tbh I don't think he should be allowed to be outside like at all. I have no idea what kind of connections Leth has to keep Ari away from prison but this is too much, he needs help...
Like aren't you a PR Director? What kind of PR Director would let an unstable man claim he has cancer to get Silksong sooner from Santa? what the fuck does that even mean???
I just hope this will not impact the release of Silksong in any way if that game is worked on at all. I pray for William to get through all of this and hopefully they find a solution how to control Ari and get him back to the keyboard to finish the work they started 7 years ago...

Again, I am not in the void, I just... wanna know, you know? What would one do if you happen to fall into the void. Well, not fall, more like... if someone happens to push you there, while strangling you with a rope that happen to be circular in nature. What would one do in that situation?
Thanks for the advice.

Yeah, Team Cherry makes awesome games, but Ari Gibson as a neighbor fucking sucks dick Ahhh, too late, already sold it to William. He actually came to me with a deal I couldn't say no to. Makes you wonder why William of all people would wanna be next to Ari so much.

What's weird is that at this point, I don't know if you guys are fucking with me. Are you for real asking if I have a neighbor, Ari Gibson, that all he does every day is Just Dance 2024, Mail checks and Maple Tree maintenance. Whoosh me all you want, but my last post made me question my sanity even more so.

[IMPORTANT] A change in the subreddit.

If I had to put my two cents here, and break the character for a moment. I understand where you are coming from, but most of r/Silksong charm is the unhinged attitude.

Yes, with this rule posts will be better off, and maybe it pushes some people to actually think before they post something meaningless, but that is not r/Silksong.

Let the subreddit moderate itself, best posts will always be at the top of the page, with or without this new rule. It always has been like this and it always will.

I believe this was his last statment about the nuking stuff.

Most of the people believed that he was joking or just simply angry at that time. But who would have guessed he would actually do it, and in 2024 no less.

BREAKING: Joe Biden just nuked Australia after a video game show had no Silksong news (via @TheNewYorkTimes)

President Joe Biden (105) just nuked one of the largest countries in the world, allegedly he did this just because of an indie video game, Silksong by Team Cherry. An Australian Team originating from Adelaide Australia.

"I warned you Australia, no silksong, the thing is gonna go boom boom"

Said the US president Joe Biden (106) after the bombing of the Australian soil. 2 months ago he threatened the Australian prime minister that he was gonna do it if Team Cherry doesn't release Silksong in 2024, but it seems his plans changed.With his rising age (107) he feels like he needed to "finish the job". Joe Biden elaborated on twitter;

"I felt like it, I don't care anymore just go boom boom, kangaroos, monkeys, sharks, just now, go boom boom, no more monkeys."

So the 'leak' seems to have just been speculation.

Ok, if it's not at SGF or Xbox Direct, I'm like done done with any showcase/leak "hype". I'm waiting for Team Cherry themselfs to say what's up.

Hey guys, this is Geoff Keighley, Silksong was gonna be at the SGF but we need your help, all you have to do is to comment your credit card number, the three digits on the back, and the expiration month and year. But, you gotta be quick, we are going live in few hours!!!

Ari Gibson Update: After 81 Days since he was declared missing and with his last sighting being a burger place in Melbourne, he was finally spotted in this random Instagram video. The person filming had no idea who Ari was. Supposedly, he was begging for money with this little dance.

mma Tonor (25) found Ari Gibson 3 days ago at a park called "Parc des Buttes-Chaumont" in Paris totally by chance. Ari was supposedly begging for money with street dances. How did an Australian Indie Developer get to Paris in just 18 days since his last sighting is up for debate. When Emma Tonor came back to the place after finding out about the Ari Gibson case, Ari was gone. The search is still ongoing as we speak, but it was few days since this video got posted so he could be in a different country already. This is very concerning if we include the fact that Ari is still without the medication he needs.

This was the last "official" sighting of Ari Gibson.

I met Ari Gibson today (actually, not a shitpost)

We didn't talk for long, I just told him how much I would like to play Silksong and that we are all excited.

To which he just chuckled and said "Silksong is close", which made me really happy... for about 5 seconds because then he started repeatedly kicking me in the nuts while yelling "I DON'T OWE YOU ANYTHING".

While I was rolling on the ground from the unimaginable pain, he pulled out his phone in an attempt to show me comments he screenshotted. The comments are little bit blurry to me now, but they went along the lines of "Team Cherry doesn't own us anything" or something like that.

"See, there is nothing I owe you or the so called Silk-Nation" said Ari.

"W-what the fuck, why did you kicked me in the nuts?" I replied

"And that's not all, this comment said you are all children, so that makes me the daddy, and you have to listen to your daddy right?" said Ari.

"What the fuck are you talking about? Get that phone out of my face." I replied

"Truth hurts doesn't it?" after which he kicked me again and then he walked away.

I have no idea if this was supposed to be some kind of joke, but it really fucking hurt and I'm not sure if I will support this dev team anymore. No matter how good the game is, all of the controversy surrounding Ari Gibson is over the line for me, I'm done.

I met Ari Gibson today (actually, not a shitpost)

We didn't talk for long, I just told him how much I would like to play Silksong and that we are all excited.

To which he just chuckled and said "Silksong is close", which made me really happy... for about 5 seconds because then he started repeatedly kicking me in the nuts while yelling "I DON'T OWE YOU ANYTHING".

While I was rolling on the ground from the unimaginable pain, he pulled out his phone in an attempt to show me comments he screenshotted. The comments are little bit blurry to me now, but they went along the lines of "Team Cherry doesn't own us anything" or something like that.

"See, there is nothing I owe you or the so called Silk-Nation" said Ari.

"W-what the fuck, why did you kicked me in the nuts?" I replied

"And that's not all, this comment said you are all children, so that makes me the daddy, and you have to listen to your daddy right?" Said Ari.

"What the fuck are you talking about? Get that phone out of my face." I replied

"Truth hurts doesn't it?" after which he kicked me again and then he walked away.

I have no idea if this was supposed to be some kind of joke, but it really fucking hurt and I'm not sure if I will support this dev team anymore. No matter how good the game is, all of the controversy surrounding Ari Gibson is over the line for me, I'm done.

What did Hornet mean by this?

Hello, I'm kinda new here and I don't get the latest song "Shawsty" from Hornet. The genius video didn't help me since all she does is "Shaw" as a reply... Please, can somebody break down these lyrics for me?

[Chorus]

Shawsty on the hoe

Showsty on the beat

Shorty gonna shaw more

Living with the bees (bzzzz)

[Verse 1]
Mom raised no bitch
And she got the clip
Pale King has that niche
For that spider clit (damn)
[Verse 2]
White bitch is mad
Lost all what she had
And even with that
I bet her pussy wet (wet)
And then Chorus starts again and it repeats 5x. What is the meaning of this? Is it Hollow Knight lore related? Thanks in advance.

I have to come clean, I used to think your acc was really unfunny with these types of responses, and wished I had the acc to rain havoc on this subreddit. But after awhile I got it.
The idea of Ari Gibson responding with anime GIFs or pictures while doing jack shit during the Silksong development is really funny to me. Keep it up Ari.

"I JUST BOUGHT THIS SMALL OFFICE IN ADELAIDE AUSTRALIA AND I'M GONNA BLOW IT UP"

Yeah but like... did he have to cut out the last 3 digits of the code on the gift cards? Like... that was totally uncalled for and only in the video so he makes it to the 10 minute mark.

"I JUST BOUGHT THIS SMALL OFFICE IN ADELAIDE AUSTRALIA AND I'M GONNA BLOW IT UP"

Maybe I'm in the minority but I really didn't like the latest video from Mr. Beast, he could have at least evacuate the other offices before he blew up the whole building... The image of the screaming office workers running for their lives was pretty unpleasant, I'm pretty sure they even had like the veterans recovery meeting the next door... a lot of lives could have been saved if he just said what he was doing before he did it, you know? But I guess it's for charity so it kinda makes up for it.

Silksong is never coming out... Ari Gibson is officially 63 days off his medication with no end in sight. This was the last video he posted on his LinkedIn...

I feel so bad for William... Not for Jack though, with all those allegations he should be happy he is not in jail right now.

Do you think Silksong's legacy can be slightly damaged if Ari Gibson goes on a 3rd genocide of the elderly people?

Last 2 were targeting slavic states, I wonder what are his motives or/if it helps with Silksong development.

It was pretty cool journey, once I got to the Earth's core and fought off the 3 homeless men for a "mystery prize" (which wasn't really a mystery, those dum dums forgot they made a sign up here), I finally was able to get my hands on Silksong.

They didn't really care to be honest, they don't have electricity down there, just bunch of gold and shit, I'm not really 100% positive they were homeless men either, one held this strange radiating trident and the other 2 were like his buddies or something, they tried to tell me something about destiny and shit but I didn't really care, I just wanted that copy of Silksong for Nintendo Switch.

What if Silksong was actually called Killsong? That would be pretty cool I think.

The plot would be about songs that wanna kill hornet or something, pretty epic.

Since Ari Gibson is probably running around naked somewhere in the middle of the Australian desert, I would argue they don't have time to work hard on the game, they are working hard to catch Ari Gibson tho.

What I heard from my Uncle that works for a milk company in Australia, Ari is currently missing, so until they find him they can not release Silksong due to some legal stuff that requires both founders to be present. Really sad what is happening to Team Cherry lately, but lets just hope they find him and give him the medication he needs...

I'M CURED, NICE TRY LETH!!!!

Thank you for your kind messages on the other post, even though it must have been really tempting to sacrifice me to Team Cherry, most of you didn't... Why? You could have been playing Silksong you dum dums.

So in a nutshell, first few days they thought it was Pneumonias but thankfully it was actually Bronchitis caused by Haemophilus influenzae. I don't know if that is better or not but I can't hear in my right ear right now, so I guess that's bad. I'm saying it should go away, but if not I guess I will need to go to the otolaryngologist.

Either way, shit sucked really bad anyway.

First few days at the hospital I thought I was actually dying from the fever not going down.

Second day I couldn't cough/move/sleep without this striking pain in the lung area, and of course high fever.
Third day I had a repeat but more bearable
Forth day I started to recover.
So It looks like 4+ days of nonstop antibiotics straight into your veins will cure you really fast.
So...
I have heard that Silksong was at the ID xbox showcase hosted by IGN and sponsored by felemenio or whatever. It was so cool that Team Cherry revealed so much about Silksong, little bit too much if you ask me.
(The old post if you are out of the loop https://www.reddit.com/r/Silksong/comments/1cc33uq/i_wish_this_was_silkpost/?utm_source=share&utm_medium=web3x&utm_name=web3xcss&utm_term=1&utm_content=share_button)

If I fcking die before this fking game comes out, I will be really pissed. I just got a fever to 40°C and it is not going down, I didnt sleep for like 3 days and I felt like shit. Now Im at the fking hospital waiting for some strong shit, to beat this fking whatever the fuck I have, to play fcking Silksong. Needless to say, maybe I wont be making posts for awhile.
If I dont make a post in a week it was nice knowing you, you bastards. No actually, thanks for liking my posts. I enjoyed making every single one, I enjoy making u guys laugh, everytime I come from work, I just sit on pc and think what to make for r/silksong. Idk why, I dont care that much about the internet points, even tho it is a nice metric to tell how well of a post I made, but I really liked the reaction to it. Some of you are so fucking funny. Like some interactions I had here I was dying laughing, literally now.

Aussie Indie Developer from Team Cherry just sold his company to Tencent, with the intent to invest all of it into Funko POP!s.

"It was a easy decision for me, the Funko POP! market is booming right now and after my partner and I got into a little fight at the work, It was really simple to contact few people and buy him from the company for pennies, thanks to a Contract-loophole that I and my team of lawyers took advantage of." said Ari Gibson.

After this interview, we had the chance to speak to the PR and Marketing Director Matthew Griffin. His only comment on this matter was "Silksong is still in a development."

If Ari Gibson and William Pellen swapped names after the Hollow Knight release, would that impact the development of Silksong in a positive way?

In my opinion, there is always something to talk about or laugh at that is silksong related, lately it just feels like people are spamming their cats because it is a really easy thing to do with minimal effort, that just floods the subreddit with bunch of useless posts. If you post a cat photo at least make it Silksong related like this guy in the Title:

His name is Pringles, but the neighbors call him White Devil, he is a little bit shy, so of course they think he is a little trouble maker, but I'm sure if they get to know him better, he is gonna lighten up their mood when they see him.
Like lats time when the neighbor's daughter was so excited to see Pringles she almost ran into the highway.

Thankfully, her Father saved her at the last second. I'm sure Pringles felt really bad about it. So please say something nice to Mr. Pringles to cheer him up! ❤❤❤

In The Dark Knight (2008), the iconic Joker character used to be just 2 Australian game developers from Adelaide, this was the original vision of Christopher Nolan until the studio executives forced him to change it.

I wish we got this version of the movie... But Joker is a pretty funny guy so I guess he makes up for it.

‘Silksong’ Live Action adaptation is in the works (via @Variety)

Popular Indie franchise from Team Cherry is getting a Live Action Adaptation, featuring Margot Robbie (Hornet), Jim Carrey (Ass Jim), Scarlett Johansson (Lace) and Morgan Freeman (Bell Queen).

"We thought of everything", says Lionsgate CEO Jon Feltheimer; "Drama, Action, Comedy and Romance will be heavily present in this thing." he added, "I don't wanna reveal too much but you can expect the movie to be R-rated."

Fans of the popular unreleased franchise are questioning the legitimacy of this statement.
Thankfully the director of this All-Star cast is non-other than Christopher Nolan. After his huge hit (pun intended) with Oppenheimer, he is ready to take the sex scenes to another level, and that's why he picked this as his next project. "I want sex, sexy sex." said Christopher Nolan. "Bugs and sex, sex and bugs haha" he added.
Ari Gibson is overseeing ‘Silksong’ on behalf of the studio. Due to his creative differences with William Pellen, Ari Gibson will be sailing this ship alone. Luckily, we had the opportunity to interview the man himself, Ari Gibson. “Silksong provides an incredible platform for storytelling opportunities. I am thrilled to have the unique vision of Christopher Nolan alongside me." said Ari Gibson.
After this statement that was unprompted, he started kicking me in the shin, repeatedly asking me if it hurts. Once I told him to stop, he jumped out of his seat and said "Square up then".
So it is safe to say, the crew behind this project is very determined to deliver a quality film that the fans of this unreleased game will truly enjoy.

0 STARS!!
I just went to McDonalds for lunch and ordered McChicken with fries and diet coke, but the second I came to the window to pick up my order this fucking asshole just punched me in the face and told me to fuck off?

I have no idea who is in charge of this McDonalds because lately all of them are powered by those AI machinery or what not, but whoever does the background checks on the McDonalds staff needs to be fired as well as this fucking asshole that punched me in the face and told me to fuck off. Highly unprofessional and borderline criminal.

This is the plan:
Knock at the door, ask them politely to use the bathroom, go to the bathroom, take a shit, don't flush, on my way from the office I'm gonna say thank you for the shit and giggles, Ari and William will be confused for a little bit, on my way out, turn around, ask them to use the bathroom again, get denied, go to the exit door and say "Whoopsie, it looks like somebody can't tie their shoes today!", Point at my shoelaces, squat down, take the copy of Silksong, boof it, stand up without crying from the unimaginable pain, walk away with the game.

r/Silksong check up, thoughts criticisms, ideas for the sub?

My only criticisms is that meme/humour Tag is absolutely stupid. Not because of the content, but once you tag it, it's like you are announcing to the world that you should laugh at this meme, and it kinda loses the punch of it.
"meme/humour" Sounds like if chatgpt was tasked to describe a picture of a cat with sunglasses and caption "Deal with it".
It would be like calling the news section "News/Sentences"
Just call it "meme", or "mem" or "e".
Thank you!

This is the only one sadly. The has been one more but it is so pixelated, its not worth posting, it is a white stick-like thing that looks like it slowly deflates.

Special Message from Team Cherry

Boy oh boy where do I even begin. KatScanViolation... honey, my pookie bear. I have loved you ever since I first seen your message. The way you drive into the paint and strike fear into your enemies eyes. Your silky smooth writing around the rim, and that gorgeous Avatar. I would do anything for you. I wish it were possible to freeze time so I would never have to watch you retire.
You had a rough childhood, but you never gave up hope. You are even amazing off the reddit app, you're a great husband and father, sometimes I even call you dad. I forvever dread and weep, thinking of the day you will one day retire. I would sacrifice my ownlife it were the only thing that could put smile on your beautiful face.
You have given me so much joy, and heartbreak over the years. I remember when you first left r/leagueoflegends and its like my heart got broken into a million pieces. But a tear still fell frommy right eye when I saw you left reddit for the first time, because deep down, my glorious king deserved to be here. I just wanted you to return home. Then allas, you did, my sweet baby boy came home and I rejoiced. 2019 was a hard year for us baby, but in 2024 you made history happen. You came back and I couldn't believe it.
I was crying, bawling even, and I heard my glorious king exclaim these words, "Op is mad cringe" Not only have you changed the game of basketball and the world forever, but you've eternally changed my world. And now you're getting older, but still the goat, my goat. I love you pookie bear, my glorious king, KatScanViolation.

My Friend (Beta Tester) gave me access to his old Silksong Beta-build from 2022 (Thoughts in the comment section)

Here you go

I just played _____ Beta build from 2022.

The Game is what you have imagined and seen from the trailers, but I thought it was strange how _____ decided that the cutscene of _____ defeat needs to be a 5 second shot of her massive raging boner slowly deflating like a balloon.

I say "_____ ", because after the _____ cutscene ends, _____ breaks the 4th wall. Video starts to play of him talking about how proud he is of the "twitching veins" and how happy he is how it turned out in the end. Then he went on a long monologue, explaining how many videos of the male genitalia he had seen and how he just had to do this cutscene justice.

The "video" (that looked like it was shot on a phone while laying on his bed), ends with him contemplating about if the 3 big veins was the right move, or if he should have gone with 4 instead.

After that, the game starts, and again, just the usual stuff, you kill bosses, listen to the beautiful tunes by _____ , get slowly immersed into the world of _____ again, and after dozen of hours, I finally encountered the final boss, _____ . Which is _____ -like figure, an end game boss essentially. It was pretty challenging... but fun!

After you defeat her, you get "You're Winner!" screen with little trophy, 8 seconds later it cuts to a leak-like video of a discussion between _____ and _____ . _____ is pretty mad at _____ . He is opposed to the whole throbbing _____ thing. The argument escalates, both of them are shouting now while _____ is repeating the same phrase over and over again, "_____ WOULD LIKE THAT CUTSCENE".
These arguments are segmented, and it seems they are recorded at different periods of time.
_____ makes an appearance in one of the calls, but he is pretty neutral about the whole thing. _____ is perplexed by this and threatens to just scrap the whole project, _____ begs him to keep the _____ cutscene in, with sorrow in his voice, sobbing, tells _____ that he doesn't understand how essential this cutscene is for the lore of _____ .
Then it cuts to black and _____ credits roll in.
Since this was a beta from 2022, I can imagine they are still arguing about this, so I hope they find a solution to this sooner or later.
Edit: Please do not harass _____ for this, it's probably something he truly believes in, his creative vision, which you have to respect.

Please put an NSFW tag on this. I was on the train and when I saw this I had to start furiously masturbating. Everyone else gave me strange looks and were saying things like “what the fuck” and “call the police”. I dropped my phone and everyone around me saw this post. Now there is a whole train of men masturbating together at this one image. This is all your fault, you could have prevented this if you had just tagged this post NSFW.

My Friend (Beta Tester) gave me access to his old Silksong Beta-build from 2022 (Thoughts in the comment section)

I just played Silksong Beta build from 2022.

The Game is what you have imagined and seen from the trailers, but I thought it was strange how Ari Gibson decided that the cutscene of Laces defeated needs to be a 5 second shot of her massive raging boner slowly deflating like a balloon.

I say "Ari Gibson", because after the Lace cutscene ends, Ari breaks the 4th wall. Video starts to play of him talking about how proud he is of the "twitching veins" and how happy he is how it turned out in the end. Then he went on a long monologue, explaining how many videos of the male genitalia he had seen and how he just had to do this cutscene justice.

The "video" (that looked like it was shot on a phone while laying on his bed), ends with him contemplating about if the 3 big veins was the right move, or if he should have gone with 4 instead.

After that, the game starts, and again, just the usual stuff, you kill bosses, listen to the beautiful tunes by Christopher Larkin, get slowly immersed into the game again, and then was time for the final boss, The Bell Queen. Which is Radiance-like figure, an end game boss essentially. It was pretty challenging... but fun!

After you defeat her, you get "You're Winner!" screen with little trophy, 8 seconds later it cuts to a leak-like video of a discussion between Ari and William. William is pretty mad at Ari. He is opposed to the whole throbbing Lace thing. The argument escalates, both of them are shouting now while Ari is repeating the same phrase over and over again, "HORNET WOULD LIKE THAT CUTSCENE".
These arguments are segmented, and it seems they are recorded at different periods of time.
Leth makes an appearance in one of the calls, but he is pretty neutral about the whole thing. William is perplexed by this and threatens to just scrap the whole project, Ari begs him to keep the Lace cutscene in, with sorrow in his voice, sobbing that he doesn't understand how essential this cutscene is for the lore of Pharloom.
Then it cuts to black and Silksong credits roll in.
Since this was a beta from 2022, I can imagine they are still arguing about this, so I hope they find a solution to this sooner or later.

Do you think Hornet would not get depressed after finding out that her existence is merely just for entertainment of other, god-like creatures, using her as a puppet for monetary gain? With no saying in that matter, no will of her own? Her torment is just for show? Would she be fine with that?

Can Silksong beat Hollow Knight in sales?

It seems that estimating Hollow Knight copies sold can be a bit tricky, if we go by the Wiki numbers of over 3 million copies sold, then that's it, but that was December 2020, 3.5 years ago, (and I'm not sure where they get this number, the wiki is citing an article that just says it with no source?) Well, with 5k new reviews flooding steam monthly. If we go by average ratio of 1 review per 100 copies sold, that's 500 000 copies a month, which seems unrealistic really, so let's cut that number in half and say 250k just for the hell of it.
250k x 39 (months since Dec 2020 sales) = 9 750 000 which again, seems way too much, so let's cut it in half.
5 mil. + 3 mil. that we know of is 8 mill copies sold. And since I like to round numbers up lets pup it up to 10 mil.
And scrap all of that bcs this website https://vginsights.com/game/367520 says it sold over 6 million copies. But I'm really stubborn so I'm gonna say 10 million anyway.
Can Silksong beat that?

Yeah, by the replies I can tell some people just skip dialog or don't interact enough with the NPCs/world; which is fine, but it does push the game imo to 160+ hours easily.

I'm gonna say 160+ hours, just because how Leth and Team Cherry refer to this game.

"It's gotten quite big", "Big Game", "We're still going, building this (very large) game. - 2019" etc.

I refuse to believe this game will be shorter or even the same length and size of Hollow Knight

Hey guys, I just got an Early Access to Silksong soundtrack from Christopher Larkin (thoughts in the comment section)

Since I'm under NDA, I can just give you my overall thoughts and small hints. So I'm sorry if i'm too vague.
Most of them were pretty good, but few were straight up experimental, like track 13 called "Ari Yum Yum" where you can hear Ari Gibson screaming at Hornet like if she was a real person, with rage in his voice asking her why can't she jump higher. The one way argument escalated to him just throwing stuff at the wall. Then he took his shirt off and said "Square up",which I assume was directed at Hornet.
At the end of the song he called her "Just a dumb B-word" (bug), which was not very nice.

Since Hornet can speak in Silksong, she of course has her own tracks and verses, but I was not a fan of the N-bombs thrown like its nothing. I don't think Hornet understands thats a big corporate nono. (if she was void, then it would be at least understandable but still little over the top).
Another track which was not for me was called "Oil and Silk" where Ari Gibson and Leth duel in their frequent Monday Twerk-offs. Leth wins of course and Ari starts crying while a slow piano from Christopher Larkin creeps in. I have no idea where this track will appear in the game, but I excited to find out.
So these are my overall thoughts, Christopher Larkin did it again and I'm sure these tunes will be a delight to hear in the game.

I think Hornet will take at least a small part in Hollow Knight: Silksong (the game)

Call me crazy, but I genuinely think Hornet will definitely take part in taking down the Silk Queen.

Do you think Hornet would survive the mean streets of San Francisco?

Well we have to take into account how confused Hornet would be entering San Francisco.
Lets say she gets teleported out of nowhere, and is totally in the dark about the whole thing, her first course of action would be to swing at somebody, (since she is trained to do so), and I don't think she can speak English, so even if the person she is attacking is screaming for help, she would probably take it as a Battle cry.
So in that sense, yeah she would survive.
But if she was prepered for San Francisco, and for my sake lets say she can speak english, then it's a done deal, and her good nature would get her killed eventually.

Personally, I think she would get shot rather quickly. Even tho it's possible for her to parry it, I still don't think Hornet is faster than bullets, and her stupid ass stance would just make her look really silly againts a Glock.
